Mr. John Bedson is recovering from the flu, and hopes to return to work next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson travel to Montrose, Michigan, last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Johnson's grandfather.

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. John Cassner and children, Donna, Alfred, Amelia and Johnny, Jr. The Cassners are former residents of Leamington, Ontario.

Dick Bedson is back at work after having his tonsils removed.

The Charles Taylor family are all up and around after quite a struggle with the flu bug.

Jim Leback was honor guest Friday night at a family birthday dinner, given by Mr. and Mrs. Gunner Carlson of Springbrook.

Mrs. Hamilton Jones of Springbrook and Miss Marjorie Damon of Lansing visited Barbara Jones, who is attending Central Michigan College in Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Harrison of Detroit spent Friday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Legg.

Phyllis Anderson was honored at a farewell handkerchief shower last week.

You can get more light from your lamps if you clean them correctly. When you have brushed the shade and washed the reflector, don't call it finished. Michigan State College home economists advise that you take out the light bulbs and wipe them with a soapy cloth. Bulbs get dirty, too, and that dirt cheats you out of some of your light.

Demand for farm products and other commodities continue to strengthen according to U. S. Department of Agriculture economists.

One of the grandest things in having rights is, that though they are your rights you may give them up.

Well, all sorts of music from the Record, plus a "grand march" and a few "mizer dances". Remember, guess passes — you need them. So be there on March 17.

THE WEARING OF THE GREEN

"When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" — that song sound familiar? You'll be hearing it quite a bit this week, for sure and begorra, Saturday is the day of the green, and whether you're Irish or not, you can't help feeling gay and jolly on that day.

Did you ever wonder where the idea of wearing the green came from? St. Patrick liked beautiful things of nature, and the grass, trees, bushes and so on were always enjoyed by him.

He tried to spread sunshine and happiness to all the less fortunate because he came from a rather wealthy family. He was always happy, and liked to see others the same way.

On Saturday, March 17, bring out those green clothes, and your shamrocks, and celebrate along with the day they're trying like to remember, St. Patrick's Day. S. S.

"Miss Music" Reviews Latest Recordings

Have you ever had your true love make this statement, "How Could You Believe Me When I Told You That I Loved You When You Know I'd Been A Liar All My Life"? That happens to be a new record, my friends, which is sung by Fred Astaire.

Then there's another new tune called "The Face". It seems the writer of this song believes that the human race has its features in the wrong spots.

Also there's that mad love affair of "John and Marsha" made by Mel Blanc. If you've never heard two people simply fascinated by each other's names, just listen to this one.

The hit parade tunes for this week are:

1. "Mr."
2. "My Heart Cries For You"
3. "Be My Love"
4. "Tennessee Waltz"
5. "You're Just In Love"
6. "A Bushel and a Peck"
7. "A Penny A Kiss"

Well, that's all for a while but remember "I Still Feel The Same About You" (Connie Haines sings that one). M. M.

Senior Starlight

For the girl of the week we have chosen the charming and witty Donna Kulling. Donna is 17 years old and 5 feet, 5 inches tall. When asked for her favorite pastime, she referred us to her favorite fellow (he has no name, Donna) and said, "I have one, but it's too late now."

Strangely though, her favorite song is "I Wonder Who" and her favorite singer is Jo Stafford along with Guy Lombardo as leading the list of handleaders. Her favorite color is lavender and her pet peeve is "people chewing gum in your ears."

Donna's ambition is to be a computer operator. As for talent, this girl is loaded. "I have no special one," she said.

For the male of the week we have chosen Ronald Simcheck, better known as "Yogi". He has been around for 17 years and has attained the weight of 170 pounds.

It seems "Yogi's" favorite pastime is "living" and does he live well! Guy Lombardo is his favorite band leader while Mario Lanza takes the spotlight as his favorite singer. "Shot Gun Boogie" and "Hot Rod Race" his favorite song, seem to lead us to believe him to be a boogie fan.

His favorite color is blue, and his ambition is to own a hot rod of that color some day. When asked what his talent was, he said, "Ha". His pet peeve is people whose feeble minds can't forget something which they at one time got a kick out of but have to continually broadcast it later. Could this be "Yogi"? As far as girls go, Ronnie "Loves 'Em All". J. B.
