When TV first began to boom... the stage stars arched their backs and said, "We'll have none of this." There's been an about face, though. And now such notchers as Helen Hayes are singing the praises of TV as the medium which will save the legitimate theatre. According to Miss Hayes... youngsters will now get their stage training in television. And as a result a lot of new talent will be uncovered. TV is like the legitimate theatre in that it requires a sustained performance from its actors... who must work on limited sets. And, of course, we point with pride to the FLYING ZEPHYRUS PLAYHOUSE as the outstanding dramatic production on television these days. It's being watched by people all over the country who've never been able to attend a Broadway show or see a stage show in person. We've said all this right along. But we're glad to see other folks coming around to our way of thinking the best of TV.

When we sell you a fine RCA Victor television set... that's only the beginning of our dealings with you. Our expert technicians take a lot of pride in giving you a neat, efficient installation or service job. You can depend on their know-how and the quality of RCA Victor. Yes... you get the best in TV. ALL WAYS at FARMINGTON RADIO TELEVISION CO., 33304 Grand River. Phone: Farmington 0917.

THE SKI'S THE LIMIT—With not quite the greatest of ego, ski star Katy Rodolph files over the shiny slopes of Sun Valley, Ida., where she will make her bid for an Olympics squad berth on March 10 and 11. Although she looks a trifle apprehensive above, Katy usually performs with a confidence that has helped to make her one of the country's top ski stars.

FLORAL NOTES:

Floral Folks Plan Spring Dance

It's election time again! No doubt everyone is well aware of the fact that the local polls will be held next Monday. Inviting all registered voters to come forth to mark their ballots. But just in case it has slipped your minds in all of the flurry that goes with Easter we did want to mention it. According to all reports, a record turnout is expected from the Floral Park residents.

A spring dance is on the agenda, the Floral Park Civic Association announces. Jack Cotton, Lilac Avenue, is chairman of the affair and his committee has arranged for the Melody Men to provide music for dancing at the Glen Oaks Country Club May 18. Civic Association members will be contacting you with tickets so get your baby sisters scheduled and we'll see you there.

Visiting friends and relatives occupied most Floral Park residents' Easter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer, Florist Avenue, visited his brother James J. Spencer, Violet Avenue, spent the day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tesch in Detroit. Still other Detroit visitors were the James Wallaces, Lilac Avenue, who had dinner with her parents and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ulitz, Violet Avenue, who dined with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Nanny after Sunday Mass.

Mrs. Marian Tomlin of Floral Avenue and her children Sharon and Michael visited friends in the big city, and the Donald Hoesslers, Violet Avenue, spent the day at the home of his brother, the Thomas Hoesslers in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Broberg spent the day with Mrs. Broberg's parents in Washington, Michigan. Entertaining guests from Flint, Michigan, Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brady, Violet Avenue. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pearson.

Gall and Gloria Hensley, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thorne Hensley, shared their baskets with their grandmother, Mrs. Gus Ekengren and their aunt, Miss Kay Ekengren, both of Detroit, who were dinner guests at the Hensley home on Floral.

Painted Easter bunnies may well have lent a festive air to the cast which Earl Holmes, Violet Avenue, has molded around his leg. The recent accident which resulted in a broken ankle for Mr. Holmes enabled him to be attired in "something different" this Easter.

A case of chicken pox was the sad fate for two of the junior set over the holiday. Little Linda Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brady of Violet Avenue, and Danny Spicer, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Spicer of Lilac, were the unhappy recipients of the germ.

Timothy Lardie, seven months old son of the Raymond Lardies, Violet Avenue, has returned home Saturday from St. Joseph Hospital, Pontiac. Timothy's six day visit was provoked by a bronchial infection. The William J. Bakers, formerly of Lilac Avenue, with children Lynn and Jay are enroute to California, where they will set up housekeeping in Los Angeles.

The tan which the Newton Skillmans, Lilac Avenue, are sporting around isn't a product of the Farmington sun, that's for sure. The Skillmans just returned to their home after a three week vacation in Jamaica where they stopped in Montego, Kingston and Tower Isle.

More than 39,000 automobile door locks per day are produced by the Ternstedt Division of GM.
