Michigan's auto industry after April 1. That's when the 20 per cent steel consumption cutback becomes effective. They will do it by producing a greater proportion of their lighter weight models.

Latest twist in civilian defense is the "alert" card. Brig. Gen. Lester C. Matland, Michigan OD director, will distribute them. They describe air alert warning signals and give instructions for self protection in case of enemy attack. The cards are printed so they may be cut into wall cards and tacked up in homes and buildings.

Michigan now has more than $2,000,000,000 in defense contracts. So rapidly have the orders rolled in that the predicted labor shortage during the conversion has not occurred. The contracts should require two years to complete. Henry C. Markle, executive director of the Michigan unemployment compensation commission, says the state still is not loaded to capacity from a manpower standpoint.

Reapportionment comes up again. This time Sen. Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek) has a plan to redivide rural and city representation in state legislature. It would "parcel out membership in the house according to population while preserving a geographical balance, heavily weighted according to population in the senate."

Federal and state prisoners may be used on work projects on Michigan lands under the jurisdiction of the United States. Currently, 250 inmates of state institutions are assigned to projects in state parks and game areas. A bill now in the Washington hopper extending such activity to federal holdings. The federal government controls some 2,500,000 acres in Michigan.

Slim And His "Ali Species"

Slim Baker, who's always doing something crazy, had a lot of people smiling last week because his entry won a ribbon in the Women's Club Annual Pet Show.

Seems as though Slim saw a strange-colored alley cat with a tail over, at Central City and brought it home. He washed, combed, and brushed it and put a collar on it with a card reading "Ali Species." Then he enters it in the show.

Heated if the ladies didn't think it was some rare kind of cat and gave it a special award! When one of them asked Slim where he could get one like it, he said, "It's all yours, M'am—I can get an 'Ali Cat' anytime I want!"

From where I sit, some of us are pretty easily "taken in" just because someone else says it's so. Whether it's awarding prizes or passing judgment on a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer—let's take a good look from stem to stern, and learn what it's all about before making up our minds.
