So for the second time in two weaks, robberies have headlined the events taking place in Floral Park. It builds up a column, we must admit, but we'd much rather discuss the flowers that bloom in the spring or the big plans being completed by the Civic Association for the dance at Glen Oaks May 18. Ted Hayman, HMS, has just been moved from Great Lakes, Illinois, to the Navy Air Base at Patuncent, Maryland. Saturday night he re-

have been found in the eight-county Gaylord district. A few dead deer continue to be picked up in the Mio, Baldwin and Gladwin districts. Second confirmed report of starv-ed fawns in the upper geninsule is noted. Less than a dozen fawns have been recovered in poor yards in northern portions of Gogobic, Delta and Dickinson counties. Heavy anaw count news.

Heavy snow crust permits deer to range out some in search of food in most upper peninsula areas.
