Patricia Sowers Earns State Music Award

Patricia Sowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sowers of 26805 Farmington Road, earned a state competition award medal for the third time Saturday at the State Solo and Ensemble Festival at Ann Arbor.

Patricia played Brahms' "Hungarian Dance Number Five" on her alto saxophone to earn the rating of "Excellent" in senior high competition. Patricia is a sophomore at Farmington High School, president of the band, and active in various school activities. This marks her third year in state festival work. Over one thousand boys and girls participated from schools throughout Michigan. All events were judged by college or university professors.

with emergencies, provided that their men and vehicles would be able to gain access to the community.

Farmington's fire department would probably not be used to fight bomb fires, Leo Hendryx, fire chief, said. He said arrangements had already been completed to keep Farmington's equipment on a "standby" basis while nearby units fought fire.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their expressions of kindness and sympathy, to Rev. Carl Schultz for his comforting words, and Mr. Heene for his kindness in our recent bereavement.

Firemen Squelch Blaze Late Sunday Evening

Farmington's volunteer fire department arrived at 21551 Roosevelt Street Monday night in time to control what might have been a major house fire.

Firemen Squelch Blaze Late Sunday Evening

Occupants of the house had ignited a gas space heater to warm the second floor of the recently moved home. The heater was not connected to a chimney flue.

Fire spread from the exhaust stack at the rear of the heater into the wall behind it. The heater, placed at the intersection of two partitions, shot flames through the inside of the wall at its rear and into the roof.

Fire Chief Leo Hendryx estimated damage at two to three hundred dollars.
