★ Blue Star Mothers L. MCINTYRE

The Blue Star Mothers, Farmington Chapter 49, held their regular business meeting Thursday, April 19, in the Town Hall. Two new members were received by the chapter.

Mrs. Alfred Lint, Sr., and Mrs. Charles Whitfoot were elected as delegates and Mrs. Nelson Vandenberg and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre will be the alternates serving Farmington chapter at the annual department of Michigan Convention to be held in the Book Cadillac Hotel, Detroit, June 3, 4, 5 and 6.

The members are planning a cedar chest sale to help raise funds for their expenses.

On Wednesday, May 9, at 1 p.m., they will hold their luncheon and card party at the home of Mrs. B. O'Loane at 2100 Wheeler Street, just one block east of Middlebelt Road.

Reports of greeting card chairman included Valentine, Easter and birthday cards to Ireland, Nova Scotia, Ontario and many states mailed to mothers of the members, Gold Star Mothers, and members of the Farmington chapter.

The hospital chairman reported that her committee had spent 163 hours, traveled 304 miles, and supplied 135 dozen cookies, besides making 24 wool laprobes valued at five dollars each, for Percy Jones Hospital and Dearborn Veterans Hospital this past year, as well as distributing cigarettes, candy, tissues, pajamas and bathrobes.

Diana Wilson, Lester Ward Wed

White gladiolas and varicolored snapdragons decorated the Novl Methodist Church April 14 for the wedding of Diana Mae Wilson of Plymouth and Lester H. Ward, Pvt. Ward was on leave from Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, for his wedding.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Brunner of 43813 Joy Road, Plymouth, was groomed in ice blue satin and lace for the 3 p.m. ceremony performed by Rev. J. M. McCluskey.

The long sleeved gown had a hoop skirt and fitted bodice, buttoning down the back with small satin buttons. An ice blue lace bonnet headress with shoulder length veil completed the bridal costume. She carried white roses mounted on a white Bible.

The bride, a 1945 graduate of Plymouth High School, has been employed by the Novl Equipment Company.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ward of 43735 Grand River, Novi, is a graduate of Northville High School, and has been on duty with the Army for three months.

Mae Sillit, maid of honor, was groomed in yellow organdy and carried pink carnations at the double-ring ceremony. Doyce Ward was best man, and James Walden and J. T. Stone were ushers.

The bride's mother chose a pink print dress with white hat and black bag and shoes for the wedding. Blue crepe and lace over beige with blue and beige accessories was worn by the groom's mother, who, like Mrs. Brunner, wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. J. M. McCluskey and Mrs. Scheffer played for the wedding, and Mrs. Campbell sang "Because" and "Always."

Members of the Ladies Aid served a luncheon at the reception following in the church parlor. Immediately after the reception, the couple left for a few days in Chicago prior to Pvt. Ward's reporting back to Camp McCoy.

The bride wore a blue suit with white accessories for her wedding trip.

Farmington's Seventh-Day Adventist Church, Grand River and Oxford, is now into its annual drive for funds for the church's worldwide missionary work, according to A. A. Leikes area leader.

The Adventists are seeking funds to support a program including 228 countries, in which 160 health institutions and 3,650 schools are used. Each member in North America contributes an annual average of over $125. The world-wide program can be supported for one minute by $29.41.

Girl Scouts MRS. A. RUSSELL WRIGHT FARM. 2486-J

Day Camp will be held June 16 through 22 at Mrs. J. P. Mackay's home at 31335 14 Mile Road. In anticipation of this, a training course will be given to all adults interested in Day Camp work on May 9, 10 and 23.

Two of these meetings will be held at St. John's Episcopal Church, 11 Mile and Woodward, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The other will be an outdoor activity class, the site to be given at a later date.

The courses, to be given by the Council of Social Agencies, will include clay work, soap and wood sculpture, leaf, potato and blue printing, twig and grass craft, paper mache work, puppets, games, songs and dramatics.

Registrations should be given to Mrs. George Sherlock at Farmington 0623 before May 4.

A training course for seniors interested in becoming program aides for Day Camp work will be given at Mrs. Mackay's from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on May 12, 19, and 26. The same classes will be taught then as at the adult leaders' classes.

New Hudson Alumni Plans School Reunion

A reunion of former students, teachers, members of the school board, their husbands and wives, is being planned by a committee of graduates of the New Hudson High School.

Date of the reunion has been tentatively set as June 2. Cards are being sent to as many alumni as the committee knows of, but since all addresses are not known, the committee is urging each alumni contacted to inform as many others as possible.
