Tumbleweed Hurts Six-Year-Old While Playing In Vacant Lot

Bobby, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McVicar, Shady-side Avenue, suffered a peculiar injury while playing in a vacant lot near his home last Sunday afternoon. Falling upon a tumbleweed, he punctured the flesh on his back near the spine, resulting in a painful wound.

Mrs. Homer Coolman, Mrs. Gerald Roberts, Mrs. Ernest Tallman, and Mrs. S. Schaeffer, all of whom are interested in Health Guild work, were in Flat Rock last Tuesday attending a tea given in the Congregational Church and honoring Miss Georgina Reid. Miss Reid was a school nurse in this part of Michigan for many years, and had much to do with the founding of Livonia's Health Guild. Miss Reid says that these days when she serves in a more official capacity, she greatly misses the contacts she used to have with parents, teachers, and pupils as she visited around in what is now the City of Livonia.

Wednesday, April 25, the Youth Fellowship group of the Livonia Methodist Church had as guest speaker Miss Beulah M. Fowler, who brought her leader dog. She discussed missionary work with the blind. She belongs to the same missionary group which Miss Helen Keller has been identified.

Duane and Carol Lee Shaffer of Farmington Road attended the J-Hop at Alma College April 14. At her home on Wooding Avenue, Mrs. John Stoughton is giving a luncheon Thursday, April 26. Proceeds are for the benefit of the Livonia Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wagner and their son Kenneth attended a TV show in Detroit Monday night. Last week end, Robert Kellogg accompanied Homer Coolman, Jr. and Barrell Middleton to the Junior Leaders' Camp at Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Winters, Westmore Avenue, have returned from a winter's stay in Florida, where they have completed a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stango of Mayfield Avenue called on their daughter, Mrs. William Griffith, and her husband in Dearborn last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Magner of Shady-side Avenue were dinner guests last Sunday evening of their daughter, Mrs. Henry McMillan and her family on Mark Twain Avenue in Detroit.

John, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Reddy, Farmington Road, is convalescing from chicken pox.

Mrs. M. E. Ault attended her rug club last Monday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Grace.

Karen, 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Grumby, Hubbard Avenue, was ill again last week with a severe cold. Karen was confined to her home by rheumatoid fever all during the fall and early winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ring, from Detroit, were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Ring's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol on Shady-side. The Rings have just moved from Marlowe Avenue to a new home on Seminole.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, Brentwood Avenue, were calling on their daughter, Mrs. George Thorne and her husband, near Ypsilanti last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Thorne is convalescing from back injuries received in an accidental fall while busy at his farm duties Friday, April 13.

SPRINGBROOK SCENES

MRS. HOWARD LEGG
23352 Springbrook
PHONE FARM. 3011-W

Mrs. Alvin Nicholson has her mother, Mrs. Martin Karvens of Detroit, staying with her this week. Miss Rosemary Allen, a former resident of Detroit, is now residing with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Trealout on Springbrook Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kirschner and family recently visited Mrs. Kenneth McKaye, Mrs. Kirschner's mother, in Marysville, Michigan.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Gasser and family returned to their old home in Leamington, Ontario, to visit some of their friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trueman of Springbrook and six other couples from Lansing and Detroit gathered at the home of Mrs. A. Hardy in Huntington Woods for a meeting of their club, which has been in existence for twenty-nine years. The Trueman's also are going out to dinner in honor of their 29th wedding anniversary this week.

Mrs. Frank Larson from Novi, Mrs. Ruth Rock of Detroit, and Mrs. Ann Smith spent the day Wednesday quilting at the home of Mrs. Robert Kahl on Springbrook Drive.

Miss Elizabeth Taylor is traveling to Florida with her brother, Seaman Millard Taylor, and his family, to assist in driving and caring for their baby, who is ill.

A bridge party and luncheon at the home of Mrs. DePew in Detroit was attended by Mrs. John Brownold, Mrs. Harry Rudy, Mrs. Gilbert Treweek and Mrs. Gordon Rolson from Springbrook Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Harrison, from Richmond, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Legg and Mr. and Mrs. John Aland on Tuesday afternoon.

George and Norman Goers are home visiting their parents on Springbrook from the Marine Corps. Norman flew home from Cherry Point, North Carolina, for the week end. George has just finished his boot training and came home with one stripe on his sleeve for a week's visit before he reports to his new base, Camp Lejeune.

Rita Christian, who is a Junior at Farmington High School, was awarded a pin last week for her writing in school publications. The Girl Scout committee leaders of Troop 174 met at the home of Mrs. Joseph McClurg to plan activities for the month of May. Those in attendance were Mrs. Hart, the leader, Mrs. Leatham, Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Runyon.

Pfc. Westberg Sent To 2nd Marine Division

Marine Pfc. Charles R. Westberg, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Westberg of 20321 Melvin Street, reported at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, recently for duty with the Second Marine Division.

He has been assigned to the famous 3rd Marine Regiment, an infantry unit.

Westberg was transferred from Parris Island, S. C., where he had been receiving basic training since his enlistment last January.

The Michigan Marine lettered in baseball and football while attending Clarenceville High School. He was graduated last year.
