

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making the best and most economical food.

LOCAL NEWS

Win. Wedow is quite ill.

Miss Ethel Armstrong of Perry was visiting friends here last week. Tell your neighbor about the Enterprise—it's only a dollar a year.

Born—To Mr. and Mr. George Reinke on Sunday, March 23, a baby daughter.

Miss Gladys Dennis was an over Sunday visitor at the home of Frank Robinson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thayer are entertaining the latter's brother, George Waite, of Novi this week.

Miss Maude Peterson, a teacher in Cass high school, Detroit, and Mrs. Anna Lockerman of Redford spent Sunday with Miss Leola Ike, near this place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ely spent Monday in Detroit.

Miss Tessa Pierson spent Saturday afternoon in Northville.

Thos. Hitchcock is quite ill and is threatened with pneumonia. His condition is such that has caused the alarm of his many friends.

Rev. Geo. L. McIlwain, well known here and of Toledo, Ohio, was a visitor here several days this week, renewing old acquaintances and visiting with numerous friends.

The way new farm machinery is being received and disposed of at H. W. Lee's would indicate that farmers in this vicinity are planning for big crops and intend farming them with right up to the minute implements.

My. and Mrs. Wm. Walters have had as their guest during the past week Miss Marguerite Cogdill of Redford.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held Thursday, April 12, at the home of Mrs. Minnie Osmus.

Miss Helen Warner was a passenger for Detroit last Friday, on a shopping expedition and a short visit with numerous friends.

Mrs. Seymour Lloyd, whose home is at Monroe spent several days last week visiting with her mother, Mrs. Mary Turner.

Mrs. Earl N. Tibbits came out from Detroit Saturday and spent the day visiting with the Nelson sisters and numerous friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Webster of Detroit were over Sunday visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Webster.

Mrs. Lou Allen and son, Edwin, of Detroit were week end visitors in Farmington being guests at the home of the former's father, Ed. Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. John Melow attended the wedding of the former's sister, Miss Alta Melow, to Ed. Bowman at the home of the bride's parents in Livonia Wednesday evening.

The local I. O. O. F. organization was well represented in Detroit Monday of last week, several of the local members going down in a body to attend the funeral of Martin Sackett.

Monday was pay day for the D. U. R., and the distribution was the usual welcome event. The line distributes no little amount in and about Farmington in salaries, there being in the neighborhood of 50 employees, including conductors and motormen, which makes a nice distribution of moneys, that more or less is spent right here at home.

W. M. Wolfong, the new man at the Chamberlin barber shop, spent Sunday in Detroit, visiting with friends.

Spring may be here, but we are taking no chances, and bought some more coal the first of the week. No, we haven't paid for it yet.

Miss Norine Hogle has been absent from the office of the Otis lumber yard for nearly two weeks on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. VanEpps will shortly occupy the residence made vacant by the removal of Fred Pinnow and family to their farm in Livonia township.

Miss Ruth Christensen of Northville, and who is a student at Ann Arbor, was in Farmington Friday, visiting with friends, and remained over for the big ball of the Eastern Stars Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosby Botsford are the proud parents of a fine baby daughter, the little lady having arrived at their home on last Friday. All concerned are reported as doing nicely.

The deed was placed on the county records the latter part of last week confirming the sale of a fine farm in section 21, Francis McDermott to Caroline Sukowski. The consideration is given as $7,500.

The dance given at the Grace House last Friday evening, drew a large crowd from this village and those neighboring, and a jolly evening prevailed until a late hour. The music was first class and all in attendance report a good time.

A second operation was decided necessary and performed on Perry Prindle, former village clerk and well known here, at Harper hospital Saturday last. He is still suffering with rheumatism, a knee being badly effected. It is hoped locally that the operation will prove beneficial.

L. H. Sprague and family will shortly remove to Detroit, where they have temporarily rented a home, and will offer their local property for rent. Mr. Sprague will continue to maintain offices for his insurance business in the Chamber of Commerce building. Their many friends sincerely regret their leaving Farmington.

During the snow storm of last Sunday evening, a prominent young couple, returning home from a Sunday visit, missed the road, and the buggy in which they were riding, turned clear over at a bad point in the road. The damage was quickly righted, no one was hurt, and the homeward trip was continued within a few minutes.

In this week's issue will be found the advertisement of the E. C. Grace stores announcing the arrival in all departments of new spring goods. Of late the illness of the owner has made it practically impossible for him to devote much attention to the business, but under capable guidance and direction of his daughter, Miss Lou, the store is running full blast and speaks well for her abilities.

Hon. D. D. Aitken of Flint addressed the regular meeting of the Pontiac East Michigan Holstein Friesian association at Pontiac Thursday afternoon, as did numerous other speakers. The association is one of the newer ones but the attendance speaks well and the membership is rapidly growing. Many dairymen and farmers from here and adjacent towns attended, and report an enthusiastic and interesting meeting.

Owing to the absence of Fred M. Warner the greater portion of last week, we were unable to give the names of the committee that was appointed by him at the Dairy-men's banquet to take up the matter of co-operative cow testing, last week. The committee is composed of Harry McCracken, Ernest Blanchard, Fred Goers, Fred Durfee and Frank Steele, and it is probable that the will have a report within a few days. The matter is one of great importance to dairymen and should receive the individual consideration of each.
