Many items of interest were brought up at the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 346 on Monday, May 14.

A report by membership chairman Mary Willard gave the assembly good news of 80 paid up members, an increase of 20 since the first of April. Many new members are needed to help in the work that all American Legion Auxiliaries participate in, such as rehabilitation, child welfare, community service. It is a better way to help our fighting men and help our country?

Poppy chairman Mrs. Lulu Schaeper had on hand her supply of poppies and capsules were distributed, two thousand to each of her captains, Mrs. Mary Markell and Mrs. Rosemary Jones. If any member of Auxiliary Unit 346 has not been contacted regarding the selling poppies, please call either the chairman, Mrs. Schaeper, or one of the captains. Your services are urgently needed for a very worthy cause.

Announcement of the coming meeting of the 17th District was made by Mrs. Treanna Quinn. She stated that on Friday, June 4, the 17th District will hold its regular meeting in Royal Oak, at which time all girls selected by the different units to attend Girls' State at Ann Arbor will be introduced. Mrs. Peg Hupert, president of Auxiliary Unit 346, is leaving for Cleveland, Ohio, on May 27 to spend Memorial Day with her husband, Mrs. Mary Willard, vice president, will preside at the Memorial Day parade ceremonies by carrying and placing the wreath for the Auxiliary. Mrs. Elsie Miller and Mrs. Treanna Quinn will be the flag bearers.

An important step to follow in meat cookery is the use of low cooking temperatures, say Michigan State College home economists. This keeps the flavour and juices in the meat cuts, which produces more tender, palatable meat, and clear, flavorful meat drippings.
