

Rita Christian Elected S. C. President; Bob Brown Takes Office of Vice-Pres.

Rita Christian was elected president of 1951-52 Student Council at elections held May 23. Bob Brown, the runner-up, will hold the office of vice-president.

Since Rita, who previously planned to attend Girls' State was elected president, she will go to the National Conference of Student Councils in Wellesley, Massachusetts, and Jane Hamilton will go to Girls' State in her place.

Representatives from grades 8 through 11 were also elected. They are:

Eighth Grade — J. Mason, J. Hico, J. Phelps and J. Schultz.

Ninth Grade — A. Alexander, M. Goers, D. Goodrich and D. Goulet.

Tenth Grade — J. Cowart, W. Smithe, M. Robinson and E. Kiles.

Eleventh Grade — M. Godfrey, D. Weber, N. Hamlin and N. Raupp.

The student body also voted on two amendments. Both were passed by a high vote. Henceforth Junior High members of the Council shall be voting members, and Student Council elections shall take place the first full week of May.

G. A. A. Holds Elections; Picnic Ends Ball Season

Elections for G. A. A. officers were held Wednesday, May 23, following a picnic in the Farmington park.

The winners will be announced Friday at the Athletic Honors Assembly.

The regular G. A. A. meeting began at 4:00. The Bottoms Up defeated the Dirty Sox 30 to 5 to end the season in first place. The Teenie Weenies defeated the Lollie Poppers to take second place.

The picnic climaxed the G. A. A. sports for the season and a baseball play day on June 2 will end all G. A. A. activities.

May Add Four Subjects To School Curriculum

Four possible subjects may be added to the Farmington High curriculum for the year 1951-1952.

French I will be offered, provided 15 to 20 students sign up for the course. The following year French II will also be taught. This will be the third language to be added to the school curriculum.

Farmington already has Latin I and II and Spanish I and II. Art III also will be taught provided a sufficient number of students will be taking the course.

A Home Economics III class will also be open for Junior and Senior girls who previously have not had the first and second year training.

The class will take up Home and Family Living.

An advanced biology class will be taught next year. The course will be divided into three parts, zoology, anatomy and physiology. The work will consist mostly of laboratory experiments. The class will be limited to approximately 15 students.

SENIOR SWINGOUT JUNE 8

Swingout will be presented by the seniors June 8. It will be the last appearance of the Seniors as students and their first appearance in caps and gowns.

Jane Quisenberry, Rita Pieren, Paul Joons and Vincent Stock are in charge of the program.

Parents of the seniors are welcome to attend Swingout, which will begin at 2:30 p.m.

LIBRARY WILL ADD MAGS

Three new magazines will be added to the library next year. Madamelle, Coronet, and one other mechanics magazine were chosen.

Approximately eight sample magazines were circulated in the library last month with sheets attached for comments. The above three were liked most.

Annual Youth Conference Held At Inkster School

The Third Annual Youth Government Conference was held May 18 at Inkster High School. Three American Government students, Barb Hawle, Rosemund LeMieux and Vincent Stock, from Farmington attended. Mr. McCarthy, social studies teacher, accompanied the group. Students from suburban schools participated in the conference.

The program began at nine o'clock with a welcome address and the introduction of the guest speaker, Mrs. Alma Pope of the Detroit Mayor's Inter-Racial Commission. The topic of Mrs. Pope's speech was "Living Today for a Better Tomorrow". After the speech, the students divided into groups to discuss international affairs, national trends, congressional outlook and local influences.

Juniors To Honor Seniors At Outdoor Festivities

The Juniors will honor the Seniors at an outdoor get-together Friday, June 8. The "Auld Lang Syne" will take place next to the gymnasium after Swing-Out.

The class has been working very hard to make it a success. Refreshments will be served and entertainment furnished.

It is customary for the Juniors to honor the Seniors.

The committee chairmen are: for boys, Arlene Aho; Entertainment, Bob Hammond; refreshments, Doris Greu; Invitations, Johanne Burnett; and arrangement and cleanup, Geraldine Haskins.
