find out discreetly whether the general had any political intentions; and second, if not, to lay some diplomatic groundwork so that the general might later get on the Taff bandwagon.

MacArthur was cordial, but politically negative. He gave Taft a shortened version of his congressional speech, quoting it in such verbatim detail that it almost seemed as if he had memorized it.

Taft's friends say that he did not tell the general that he, the senator, was a candidate for the presidency though he did hint that the Republicans were most grateful to MacArthur for what he had done and that they would certainly want him to be a leading defense planner if they won in 1952.

HISTORY REPEATS

Herbert Hoover, who has been the chief confidante of General MacArthur during the present big debate, paradoxically was on the other end of a somewhat similar situation when he was President of the United States.

Hoover made the mistake of ordering the court-martial of Maj. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, a popular Marine Corps figure, after Butler had started a lecture that Benito Mussolini, then dictator of Italy, had run over a child with his car but failed to stop. General Butler's court-martial was ordered after Italian Ambassador Di Bartino had protested officially.

But immediately there arose a tremendous outcry from the American press and public, and for weeks Hoover was the butt of pos-

Bell Names New Manager For Farmington Office

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced this week that George P. Hartwick has been appointed manager of the company's Farmington office, which includes the Farmington area, to take over the duties of Erwin S. Scherdt, who will return to military duty early next month.

Scherdt was appointed manager of the Plymouth office in January, 1950. Prior to that assignment, he was assistant manager working in the Farmington, Whitmore Lake, Chelsea, Dexter and Manchester areas.

Hartwick was assistant manager of Michigan Bell's Ann Arbor office before being named to succeed Scherdt.

Scherdt will return to the Army Medical Corps in which he was an administrative officer during World War II. He will report to the Army Medical College, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

SUNSHINE LADY ASKS
80 CARDS FOR AN
80th BIRTHDAY GIFT

Have you ever seen the smile of gratitude on the face of a sweet old lady who has just had her dearest dream come true? If you have, I'm sure it strengthened your life a great deal.

A new assurance that life can be beautiful could be brought to such a woman living here in Farmington. She has a dream that she prays will come true. Her family and friends are few, and only to her is this a big worry.

That dream of hers is when her 80th birthday falls due on June 3 that her mail box will hold 80 cards for her and perhaps a few extra ones. Because I think this is a very special case, I am asking as many folks as possible if they won't start right now showering cards on Mrs. George Welsh, 20309 Mayfield Avenue, Route 2, Farmington, Michigan.

St. Martin's Auxiliary
Elects New Officers

Mrs. J. Packard was named president of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Martin's Episcopal Church recently when the group held its elections. Also elected were vice-president Mrs. William Renker, secretary Mrs. Joseph Worstell, treasurer Mrs. Leonard Coombes, and corresponding secretary Mrs. S. H. Droegge.

Open Two Classes To Train Nurses' Aids

Bradlee Pruten, Red Cross chairman of volunteer services for Oakland County, said last week the county needs more nurses' aids. To fill the demand two courses are being planned, both to be given at Pontiac's St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital.

One will be held on three Saturdays: June 9, 23 and 26, from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Students will bring their own lunch. The other course will be held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, June 12, 19, 26, 29 and 30, from 7 to 10 p.m. Arrangements to attend the classes can be made with the Royal Oak office at Lincoln 2-6700.

Choir Of 120 Youngsters
Entertains At Pour

A choir of 120 elementary pupils under the direction of Mrs. Jean Wells, music supervisor, presented folk songs and dances of various nationalities found in the United States recently when the annual Spring Pour was held in the Farmington High School gymnasium.

Mrs. Vincent Adamski, with the help of the mothers from the Bond School area, had charge of the morning coffee hour, while Mrs. Ray Dodson and the mothers of the Farmington area took charge in the afternoon. Through the courtesy of the Methodist Church, a nursery was held under the supervision of Mrs. Opal Imonen, school nurse.

In 1950 fifty-two million tons of bituminous coal were loaded at Lake Erie ports.

How can you Tell till you Try It?

THE days and weeks are slipping by — and what have you done about it?

What have you done to find out how it feels to handle a high-powered and high-spirited '51 Buick?

We'll tell you this. In all the years that Buick has been building fine automobiles, there's never been the match for this one.

This is a car that likes to be compared—for power, for performance, for ease of control, for ride, and room, and comfort.

We can tell you its valve-in-head Fireball power sinks you back in the cushions at the touch of your toe.

We can tell you it's nimble-footed in traffic, or that it conquers hills with smooth and exultant momentum.

We can tell you it hugs the road and holds the curves as if it were drawn by an invisible magnet.

We can tell you that it has big, soft coil springs on all four wheels—or that its gas mileage will put a smile on your face.

We can tell you that Dynaflo

Drive* will spoil you for any other type of power transmission.

But you'll never know till you try for yourself what all this really means.

How about coming in for a sample? Once you've experienced all this for yourself, the modest price tags on Buick SPECIALS, SUPERS or ROADMASTERS will look like a double bargain.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on extra and on other Buicks.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.
