

Mrs. Nelson Vanderburgh, on Waldron, and house guest, Mrs. Carrie Flemming, were Detroit callers Tuesday.

Rev. Norman Allen Returns To Church

Rev. Norman Allen of the Metropolitan Baptist Church will return this morning to be guest speaker at the morning church service at the Farmington Baptist Church. There will be no evening service Sunday because of the baccalaureate ceremonies.

The Alice McDonald Mission Circle meets at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist Church on Thursday, June 14. There will be a pot luck luncheon at 12 p.m. and at 1:30 p.m. a business meeting will be held. The speaker will be Mrs. R. Snyder, who will describe "East Panorama".

The monthly business and social meeting of the Berea Class of the church will be held June 12 at 8 p.m.

Obituary

RICHARD A. SMITH

Richard A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of 31196 West Hill Avenue, died Saturday evening, June 2, at Pontiac General Hospital. He was injured on May 21 in an automobile accident at Union Lake.

Richard Arden Smith was born January 5, 1931, at Waterford, Michigan. He attended Royal Oak public schools, coming to Farmington five years ago and graduated in the class of 1948. He was an apprentice brick mason working for his father. Richard was a member of the Bricklayers Union No. 29, Pontiac.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Thayer Funeral Home with Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiating. Burial took place in Perry Mount Cemetery at Pontiac.

Surviving besides his parents are four sisters, Barbara, Joyce, Joan and Vivian, all at home.

Control of mastitis means bigger milk checks. Managed milking and use of a strip cup every day will help in mastitis control.
