MSC Receives Grant For Forest Research

Michigan State College has been granted a grant of $24,500 and 200 acres of forest lands in southern Michigan for expanded research in forestry, particularly with the tulip poplar tree.

The property was given to the college in the will of Fred Russ, Cassopolis philanthropist and business man, who died April 10.

The land is near the 580-acre tract located in Newberg Township in Cass County which was given to MSC in 1942 by Mr. Russ.

In choosing your floor covering, remember that your room has three parts — floor, wall and furnishings. Your room will look better if only one of these has a prominent pattern and the other two are plain or inconspicuous.

A linen tablecloth will iron much easier if it is wrung out by hand instead of put through a wringer.

Suits or coats that are worn for a day and then hung away for a day or two will give more service.
