St. Paul's Summer Bible School Starts June 25

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Middelet near Eight Mile Road, will start its vacation Bible school next Monday, June 25, according to Rev. Walter Rutkowski.

The school, to last until July 6, will offer Bible stories, handicraft, movies, songs and games, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon Monday through Friday.

Mrs. William Griffith from Dearborn was the week end guest of her mother, Mrs. E. W. Stange on Mayfield.

Couple Off On Trip To Chicago

Off on a trip to Chicago are Dr. Harry Edward Stolker and his bride, the former Susan Jane Simon. They were married Friday at the Strathmore Methodist Church by Rev. Luther Butt.

White nylon tulle and chantilly lace over white slipper satin formed the gown of the bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simon of Terry Avenue in Detroit. The gown had a sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice with puffed sleeves. The three-tiered skirt terminated in a medium train.

Her four tiered veil of illusion which fell to fingertip length was trimmed with seed pearls and chantilly lace. She carried a cascade of white roses with an orchid corsage.

Lorraine Bartell was chosen as matron of honor. She wore blue lace over taffeta and a satin headband. Pink and white roses made her bouquet.

Bridesmaids at the double ring ceremony were Phoebe Stocklin, Nancy Boyer of Cincinnati, and Dorothy McNamara. They wore pink, apple green, and yellow-mar-quisette over taffeta, respectively, with satin headbands matching the dresses. The three carried tallman roses, yellow roses and hybrid roses.

Fred Stolker, the groom's brother from Murco, California, was best man. Ushers were Clifford Miller of Detroit, Dr. William Greener of Bailey and Sheldon Hitchcock, also of Detroit.

Charles Wingert sang "Love's Sweet Whisper" and "Because" at the candlelight ceremony. Carol Simon, groomed in orchid organza, was flower girl, and Tommy Bartell was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore ankle length blue satin with lace, with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Stolker chose navy blue print with velvet shoes and bag. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

Miss Claudia McConchie has returned to the home of her parents, the James McConchie in Clyde, but will be in her wheel chair for several weeks following an auto accident near Highland, Michigan.

AUDREY RUTH SITTS SPEAKS VOWS AT METHODIST CHURCH

Mrs. Thomas Domzalski

Private Thomas C. Domzalski, son of the Boleslaus M. Domzalski of 22524 Shakespeare, Detroit, and Miss Audrey Ruth Sitts were united in marriage Saturday at the First Methodist Church in Farmington.

The bride, daughter of the M. H. Sitts of 22490 Floral, asked the groom's sister, Mrs. Harold Jameson to be her matron of honor. Miss Dorothy Berezina and Miss Constance Sitts were bridesmaids.

Boleslaus M. Domzalski, Jr., assisted his brother as best man, and Douglas V. Wykeop, Jr. and Lawrence Domzalski were ushers.

White lace and tulle formed the bride's gown, which had a lace bodice and tulle skirt and train. The gown was princess style with a high neckline and long sleeves. A halo of net and pearls held her fingertip veil.

The matron of honor wore a ball-length, lace orchid net gown at the 12 noon ceremony. She carried carnations tied deep orchid. The bridesmaids wore medium and deep orchid taffeta gowns, with net overskirts. Their headresses were also net hoes. Both carried carnations tied deep orchid.

Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiated at the double ring ceremony, performed between two altar bouquets of white.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party adjourned to the church parlors for a reception, with bride's cake, groom's cake, sandwiches and coffee served by the Ladies Aid Society. Pvt. Domzalski is stationed at Camp Cooke, California.

100 Attend Picnic Dinner At John Stipeak Home

The John Stipeak home on Kirby Street was a lively and pleasant place Sunday when the sons, daughters, and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles from Jackson gathered for a picnic dinner on the lawn for Father's Day. Mrs. May Ruggles, who is visiting the Stipeak family and is the mother of Mr. Ruggles, was also present. There were 100 present for the family gathering.

Mrs. Carl Hinz in LaMar left Friday for Alabaster, Michigan, where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Edith Rescue.

Bell-Trickey Vows Solemnized Friday

A ceremony in the Farmington Methodist Church Saturday at 7 p.m. united Laree Lillian Trickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Sr., of Novi, and Duane Eugene Bell in marriage.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Kenneth Cole and Mr. Raymond Bell of Glenview and Wixom. Rev. A. Stanley Stone officiated.

The bride gown was of white satin and nylon net with fitted bodice on a nylon lace with shirred tulle at the bottom of the yoke, forming cap sleeves with fitted satin gauntlets ending in points at the hands. The gown buttoned down the back with tiny satin buttons, ending in a train and hoop skirt.

A lace halo held the three-quarter length veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Charles Trickey, Jr., matron of honor, wore navy green marquisette and carried yellow gladioli. Mrs. Henry Minche and Miss Doris Wendland, bridesmaids, wore gowns of yellow lace and peach, respectively, and carried yellow and green gladioli.

Soloist was Harvey Dunn, who sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer." Don Kuntzelman was best man and ushers were Henry Minche and Charles Trickey, Jr. Edna Mae Minche, the groom's niece, was flower girl, and Chuckie Trickey, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer. Mrs. Murel Burdick was organist.

A reception followed at the church parlors, where Mrs. Werner Bleess, Mrs. Marvin Bleess, Mrs. Roy Dornon and Mrs. Donald Kuntzelman served and Mrs. Herbert Hines presided at the guest register.

A navy blue crepe and lace dress with white accessories was chosen by Mrs. Trickey, while Mrs. Cole wore mint green with white accessories. Both wore yellow corsages. At the double-ring ceremony, the bride carried a fancy linen handkerchief which had been carried by the bridegroom's grandmother, and the groom carried a white silk handkerchief which was his grandfather's.

Will Make Home At Owosso

When Mr. and Mrs. Robert Squire Cushman return from their wedding trip at Pontiac Lake, they will make their home at Owosso until school starts in fall.

The bride is the former Patricia Jane Rudy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudy of 24995 Springbrook. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. LaVere T. Cushman of Owosso.

They exchanged their marriage vows at 3 p.m. Saturday at the bride's home. Later, guests at a reception held there.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of rose point lace with medium train. She wore a finger tip veil and her early American bouquet featured white roses.

Rev. Dean Davis of the Owosso Episcopal Church performed the double ring ceremony.
