The SEC is the only agency which has falled to answer a questionaire, sent out by alert Pennsylvania Congressman Francis Warnia Congressman Fr they were government officials.

The manner in which some officlais have used their government positions to do favors for private companies, then have gone to work for the same companies at higher salaries, is a national scandal.

Probable reason why the SEC is keeping silent is that the answers keeping silent is that the answers would be embarrassing. For ex-ample, SEC would have to tell how it reversed a recommenda-tion to disolve the United Cor-poration, after several former SEC employees were hired by United. Organized by J. P. Morgan, Unit-

Organized by J. P. Morgan, Unit-ed Corporation is a giant holding: company which gives Wall Street bankers control over several pow-er and electric companies. In 1942 the SEC staff recommended dissol-ving this parent corporation under the holding company act and on the grounds. that it served no useful purpose except to perpetuate bank-er control. er control.

However, the bankers turned around and hired several SEC offiaround and hired several SEC offi-cials, including some who had worked in the very recommenda-tion to dissolve the United Corpora-tion. First to move over to United was William M. Hickey, who had been assistant director of SECs public utilities division. Suddenly in April, 1936, he became president April, 1936, he became president in addition, John J. Burns, SEC counsel in the carly days, became sendor counsel; E.
