Spear Fishing Season Extended

Spear fishermen can open operation through August 15 on 160 lakes in 30 counties in the southern third of the state. The first portion of the split season had closed May 30. The conservation department advises that spearing is legal for taking only carp, garpike and dogfish. There is no catch limit and artificial lures may be used. Fifty new lakes are included on the list, which can be checked with the local conservation officer. A copy of open lakes can be secured from the department's fish division, Lansing.

The life of farm machinery depends on the type of machine and the way it is stored. But, Michigan State College agricultural engineers believe, a storage shed should not cost more than 20 per cent of the value of the machinery to be housed. Taking care of farm machinery and equipment is one of the best ways to help keep the farm factory strong.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

(Continued from Page Two) ly refused to appoint McCarthy to the policy committee. Even McCarthy's close friend, Senator Taft, remarked privately that he would vote against McCarthy. They feared that, if McCarthy got on the policy committee, it would look as if the Republican party endorsed his tactics. However, two of McCarthy's more vociferous friends, Senators Weller of Idaho and Jenner of Indiana, drew up a petition to force a show-down vote, and secured the signatures of Senator Wherry of Nebraska, Schoepel of Kansas and Williams of Delaware. What they proposed was to add another member to the policy committee in order to create a vacancy for McCarthy. Under the rules, this petition forced Millikin to call a meeting of all Republican senators, which he did.

Meanwhile, however, GOP leaders moved fast. They shifted committee assignments around to create a vacancy on the powerful senate rules committee, then in order to neatly sidestep McCarthy, offered the rules post to him. This was too much of a temptation for McCarthy to resist, and he accepted it. For it put him in a position to block the senate report on the Maryland elections, where he is up to his neck in this scandal and anxious for a whitewash.

For example, the Maryland investigation has already discovered that McCarthy's assistant, Don Suring, forjured himself before a senate committee and was kicked out of the FBI. So McCarthy accepted the rules committee post. After retaining this, however, he refused to be satisfied and continued his campaign to get on the policy committee.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh. What's So Funny? Just finished reading a magazine article that "proves" you and I don't know what's funny. A bunch of psychologists came to this sad conclusion after telling jokes to college students. Very often they would give out with what they considered a side-splitter—and not get even a chuckle in response. Other times the students would laugh their heads off at stories that weren't considered really funny. Maybe I'm wrong, but what makes a psychologist such a better judge of humor than the rest of us? If a man gets a kick out of a joke that proves it was funny to him—doesn't it? From where I sit, when psychologists try to set up a standard for a sense of humor they're getting too serious for me. Stands to reason that different people laugh at different things, just as they have different tastes for most everything. I'm partial to a glass of beer with meals myself—but I promise not to make any "wise-cracks" if you prefer tea. Joe Marsh.
