Fire damage to Michigan forests has fallen off this year. Thus far 356 fires have burned 3,613 acres as compared with 637 fires damaging 4,218 acres during the same period a year ago.

This week 15 conservation officer trainees will be selected. They will take eight weeks of classroom instruction and four to six months of field training.

Archery is a favorite sport of many Michigan residents. In 1950 there were 14,670 residents and 815 non-resident bow and arrow hunters roaming the state.

The combined spring and fall Michigan pig crop is estimated at 100 million head — 5 per cent above 1950 and 16 per cent above the 1950-19 average.

Southern Michigan construction contracts awards for the first six months of 1951 were up 6 per cent over the same period of last year — all in the face of credit curbs. June totals were $123,792,000. Six months total for 1951 is $412,377,000 as against $416,910,000 for that period in 1950.

Plucky Partridge Ignores Bulldozer

There is one hen partridge near Rose City which is not as touchy about having her nest moved as some of her brothers.

The nest was disturbed by a bulldozer preparing an oil well drilling site, but was restored and even decked out with a couple of ferns. Robert Van Camp, conservation officer, says the partridge later returned and continued to incubate the seven eggs as though nothing had happened.

An extra attraction to campers at the Holland State Park is the showing of conservation department fish and game movies.

A motor operating at idling speed in a closed, private garage can generate enough carbon monoxide gas to overcome the driver and cause death in a few minutes.

Pontiac Lake To Be Scene Of Archery Tournament

The 1951 state archery championship tournament will be held September 9 at the Pontiac Lake state recreation area, the conservation department reports.

Some 200 of Michigan's best bow and arrow shooters are expected to compete in the annual contest sponsored by the Michigan Archers Association.

Another big event for the rapidly expanding Michigan bow hunting army will be the second annual broadhead shoot at Lewiston on September 30, the day before the archery season opens. The day of festivities, which attracted 400 archers last year, will include a special feed, contest prizes and a deer drive.

An estimated 1,000 archers, largest concentration in any area, were in the Lewiston area last bow season.

Michigan had a record of 14,670 residents and 815 non-resident bow and arrow hunters in 1950.

The largest consumer of nickel for plating purposes is the automobile industry.
