Controller Robert F. Steadman has asked the civil service commission if it is contemplating a pay raise to state employees. Last year the CSC upset Steadman's budget plans by granting sweeping raises after he had prepared the budget.
The commission has a "moral re-

Nothing can stop a public relations man. J. R. Ferren, Washington, D. C., walked right through a plate glass window next to the main entrance of the Lansing State Journal building. Ferren, in charge of public relations for the Seventh Day Adventist camp at Grand Ledge, delivered his releases, then walked out — the door — to go to the hospital to have five stitches taken in a cut wrist.
