

Private Alvin Lind has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lind of Ten Mile Road. He is on a delay enroute to Fort Lawton, Seattle, Washington. He will be home until September 28.

Closely woven fabrics are best for slip covers because they give greater protection against dust, hold their shape better, wear longer and tailor more easily than do loosely woven materials.

Couple Exchange Marriage Vows In Church Candle Light Service

A candle-light altar decorated with white flowers set the mood for the wedding of Marlon Turbull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Turbull of Centralia, to William Harrison, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison, Sr., of Shawassie, in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony officiated by Rev. A. Stanley Stone at the Farmington Methodist Church Saturday, September 15.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was dressed in an embroidered nylon chiffon gown with portrait neck line, long sleeves and hoop skirt trimmed with an illusion net around the edges. Her headpiece was a tiara with finger-tip veil of illusion. She carried white mums and glads with a detachable orchid corsage.

Robert Junke, accompanied by Mrs. Muriel Burdick at the organ, sang "I Love Thee" and "Because" during the rites.

Mrs. Phyllis Westbrook, dressed in a pale green chiffon gown, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Bernice Dur-

Mae Marie Brown, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of 1909

Deering, became the bride of Corporal Robert McDonald, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Harvey McDonald of San Francisco, California, in a ceremony performed by Rev. Elsie M.

Johns at 7:00 p.m. in the Clarenceville Methodist Church Saturday,

September 15.

The bride, wearing a white satin,

gown with sheer bodice and skirt trimmed with lace and a large hoop skirt with three stripes of lace in laid forming a train, was escorted to the gladioli decorated altar by her father. Her head crown consisted of a seed pearl decorated finger-tip veil of illusion lace and she carried white dwarf mums with a detachable orchid train.

Bridesmaids were Rene Mayhew

and Alice Colegrove.

YOUR PERSONAL PHARMACIST

● Your pharmacist must have a broad and up-to-date knowledge of all kinds of drugs and pharmaceuticals. He knows how each of them affects the human body; he knows which ingredients are harmful or ineffective when mixed with others. It is almost as important to have a personal pharmacist — one who knows you and your family well — as it is to have a personal physician.

Corp. McLean Graduates Highest In Army Class

Corporal Robert L. McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McLean, 22251 Averhill Street, Farmington, recently graduated from the Far East Command Chemical School, Camp Gifu, Japan, with the highest average in his class, Army authorities report.

Corporal McLean arrived in the Far East Command in April of this year and was selected to attend this special course because of his high qualifications as a soldier.

Camp Gifu is part of the Southwest Command which has the mission of furnishing supplies and services to the United Nations troops in Korea and the Occupation Forces in Japan. Commanded by Brig. Gen. Carter W. Clarke, the command encompasses southern Honshu Island and the islands of Shikoku and Kyushu.

Art Rosel of Seven Mile Road reported for Army duty at Ft. Custer September 6.

Cousins 'In Arms' Meet; First Time Since 1938

Private Wm. F. Long, who arrived home September 1 on a delay enroute to Fort Lawton at Seattle, Washington, to be sent to the Far East Command, was met at Ann Arbor by his family and cousin, Private First Class Donald Ralph from Fort Knox, Kentucky, reports Mrs. Long. The cousins had not seen each other since 1938.

There is only a little difference between their ages, Mrs. Long relates. Bill Long is the oldest by six months. Donald Ralph's father, (Mrs. Long's brother) is a judge in the east.

The Ralph family, Mrs. Long continued, dates back four generations and has had someone in this country's wars since the Civil War. Mrs. Long's youngest brother was killed at Anzio beachhead in 1944.

Pvt. Bill Long left by plane for Fort Lawton, Washington, Wednesday, September 18, from Willow Run airport.
