Church To Hold Youth Crusade

A series of special youth-planted programs will be presented by Rev. Richard W. Neale, youth leader of Wheaton Illinois, at the Southfield Community Presbyterian Church, located at 21125 Indian Road, two blocks north of Eight Mile Road and four blocks east of Inkster, from September 22 to 30. The meetings are scheduled from 7:30 to 8:45 each evening, according to the Pastor, Rev. H. Raymond Dayne.

Rev. Neale has carried on a coast-to-coast ministry among the young people in the United States and Canada. Graduating from Wheaton College in 1925, he pastored churches in Ohio and Michigan for fourteen years. Then, moving to Illinois, he launched into his present ministry which, in December, 1943, he organized as the Youth Gospel Crusade, Incorporated, which now has a staff of eight workers.

The church bus will pick up those desiring to attend, beginning at 6:45 at Grand River and Police.

proceeding along Norfolk to Anglin, then to Middlebelt and Astor, along Nine Mile to Telegraph, Five Points Road to Pembroke, and across Pembroke to MacArthur.

DETROIT BRANCH RED CROSS LAUNCHES DRIVE

At the request of the Department of Defense the Detroit Red Cross blood center has joined with some 60 other regional and defense blood centers in the United States in the largest blood donor recruitment campaign since World War II. The drive was formally launched September 10 with special programs on all radio networks. Flattering appeals by Generals Marshall, Bradley and Ridgway.

Sixteen states in the mid-west area, including Michigan, have been asked to produce 2,500,000 pints in the next few months, of which 719,000 pints are earmarked for American wounded in Korea and the Armed Forces.

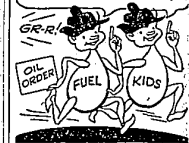

"We can accommodate up to 369 donors a day in the center at 153 E. Elizabeth with present facilities," said John M. Sullivan, executive director of Detroit Chapter, American Red Cross. "Flattering appeals by Generals Marshall, Bradley and Ridgway."

Sullivan urged that donors report to the center, individually or in groups of as many as 20 persons. Community, industrial, fraternal or other groups wishing to arrange for a mobile unit should call the blood center, WO. 4390.

Mrs. H. A. McIntyre left Monday for Petoskey where she will attend the Northwestern District meeting on Tuesday and Wednesday with other members of the Department of Michigan. Blue Star Mothers of America will be present for the North District meeting and School of Instruction in Sault Ste. Marie.
