Old Dame Nature is putting on a show which should be getting rave notices from more than a comparative handful of persons, says L. N. Jones, assistant conservation department parks chief. 'Attendance in parks and recreation areas takes a dive shortly after Labor Day, Jones declares, about the time nature's autumn color extravaganza gets under way. The color riot now is at a climax and, the parks chief says it should be enjoyed by more than just so-called "nature lovers".

Eye pleaseer are the color-turn-
