Drive is now in its second week of progress. Volunteer workers are covering the entire Farmington City and Township area in an effort to reach the $8,500 mounts are upon for the 1951 Drive.

You are a vital part of this campaign. It is designed to assist many local and county agencies that depend upon you for help, and most of all—you benefit! Make a contribution to the Farmington campaign and help yourself and your neighbors.

This is an excellent opportunity for every resident of the Farmington area to play a part in the binding together of our community. It is an opportunity to develop more community pride and spirit among all of our people. It is an opportunity to help one another. Farmington has a job to do and it can be done if we all lend a hand.

Four vitally important Farmington area agencies are looking to you for assistance. Their main source of revenue is the Farmington Community Chest, a part of the United Fund campaign. They are here to benefit you and to make our community a better place in which to live. The Farmington and Clarenceville Recreation Commissions, and the Farmington Boy and Girl Scouts are depending on you.

Give to the Farmington United Fund and Community Chest Drive and help yourself. If you must contribute in another community, save part of your donation for your home community. Let's go over the top this year!

It is a project that can be of great service to a community, large or small, not only in times of national emergency but in everyday living. No greater service could be performed by any organization than the planning and execution of a blood typing program in Farmington. It can and should be an organization project operated in connection with local and county civilian defense officials.

In a number of communities where blood typing has been completed, invaluable service has been rendered to sick and injured individuals. The program is fast becoming an important everyday necessity as well as an intelligent emergency defense measure. Often times a certain type of blood is urgently needed to save the life of a sick or injured neighbor. Through blood typing program the needed donors could be to save the life of a sick or injured neighbor. Through blood typing program the needed donors could be found quickly and easily.

A considerable amount of information is available through the county civilian defense organization on how to conduct the blood typing program. In addition, valuable information can be secured from communities that have already completed such a project. It is an excellent project for one or more of our community organizations and the benefits to the community are immeasurable, just as the saving of a human life is immeasurable.

and principal begins is a hard line to draw. This fact showed up in bold relief last week at the American Legion Convention in Miami.

When the Legion's foreign relations committee presented a resolution calling for the removal of present leaders in the State Department, there were loud cries of "politics". It is probably natural that anyone favoring the present actions of the State Department would term the resolution "Political". In fact, it would probably be called "politics" by some if the action was the other way around. "Politics" is a handy word.

action was the other way around. "Politics" is a handy word.

However, it is possible that the majority of the selection was sound, not just on a political basis but on a principal basis. Just because one man does not agree with another is hardly proof that he is playing politics.

We can blame everything on "Politics" if we want to, we can sour most honest and logical arguments in the world. Or we can intelligently analyze situations for ourselves and make sound conclusions based on fact. Then and only then have we succeeded in drawing the line between "politics" and principal, and all the name calling in the book can't bring the lines to patcher again. gether again.

Destiny of Man Is Not Found in Technology Books

THERE is a story that seems to fillustrate perfectly the tremendous task controuting those who would be followers of the Lord in this speeded-up age. This tale, which concerns a thing the seems to the Lord through the backwoods country, always traveled by horse and buggy.

On one such trip the preacher stopped at a farmhouse to inquire the way to his destination. The farmer who was asked, in his turn inquired as to the nature of the traveler's business and the gradent core. The farmer control of the control of

The farmer looked over the horse and buckboard rather scornfully and said: "Well, you'll never overtake Him in that outfiel the present standard of living—high-est in the world—and for having moved us from horse and buggy days into an historical time of atomic power, wonder drugs and unparalleled industrial production. And all these things and its done to the divine power that made all these things and its done to the divine power that made all these things and the down existence possible.

What we must remember, however, is that man's destiny will be found not in technological manuals, but in the golden pages of the Bibbe.
