Human Relations Head To Speak To Town Hall

"How to Get Along with Others" is Dr. James P. Bender's subject at Detroit Town Hall, Wednesday morning, November 28, at 11 o'clock in Fisher Theatre.

Dr. Bender heads the National Foundation for Human Relations in New York City. He founded the institute to answer a long-felt need among business corporations for competent advice on personnel problems. The clinic now helps both men and women solve their personal difficulties.

Dr. Bender has authored more than 359 articles on psychological themes. Among his best known books are "Leadership: How to Develop It," "How to Sleep," and "Personality Structure of Suffering."

Advanced reservations for the lecture are at Grinnell's, Woodward 2-1124.

court, attorneys and three laymen establish a court administrator to keep tabs on work done by judges, and give the supreme court power to fine, disbar or jail judges found guilty of conduct unbecoming a judge, on or off the bench.

Some legislation was defeated by the lawmakers two years ago.

Michigan State College officials predict their self-liquidating building program will pay for itself within 15 years.

With Christmas nearing again, business in the state has increased in volume. But merchants report that while shoppers are plentiful, buyers are not so numerous. There is plenty of money, yet people just aren't spending freely.

Mental health officials are working over plans for a new state-operated neuro-psychiatric institution at Wayne University patterned after research programs in Indiana and New York.

Taft, is a Roman Catholic.

"Knowing the efforts of the Roman church to get an official representative to the Vatican and its efforts to get public aid for parochial schools, I thought it equitable to pass this information on to you for what it is worth."

"Of course you know that our congressman, Edward Breen, is Roman Catholic and that he favors public aid for parochial schools."

"It is a mistaken public idea that Governor Frank Lausche is Roman Catholic. He was raised in an orthodox church. His family goes to a Methodist church. He has never been a Roman Catholic. These are the facts as I have been able to ascertain them."

"For the authenticity of this letter, contact the Lutheran pastor in your community or Rev. F. R. Stoneburner, 201 Commercial St., Dayton, Ohio."

"If you wish the members of your congregation to receive copies of this letter, please send such list to Post Office Box 224, Greenville, O."

GILLETTE WORRIES

When Gillette first demanded a probe of his campaign, the Senate elections subcommittee voted 4 to 1 for it, including the two Republican members, Mrs. Smith of Maine and Hendrickson of New Jersey. The only man who voted against it was timid Senator Gillette of Iowa, Democrat.

However, when the elections committee held Robert Murphy, an experienced investigator and a Catholic, as its counsel, Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, a Taft leader, blocked the appointment. He would a doe deer.
