

There is no substitute for Royal Baking Powder for making the best cake, biscuit and pastry. Royal is Absolutely Pure and the only baking powder made from Royal grape cream of tartar.

LOCAL NEWS

Go to Cook & Co. for up-to-date Hats and Caps.

Miss Ida Steele spent her vacation with relatives in Ovid.

M. T. Murray of Lansing was a local visitor the latter part of last week.

John Pettibone is quite sick, having been confined to his bed for some time.

Mrs. Mary Osmus spent last Friday in Detroit, shopping and visiting with friends.

Miss Orene Habermehl of this place visited with numerous Detroit friends last week.

Section men are laying some new steel on the tracks on Grand River in the main part of the village.

Mrs. Mary Lytle of North Farmington was a caller in the village Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Fred Carr and two children of Pontiac spent the past week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Daines.

Mrs. John Harger and daughter of Detroit spent a few days of last week with the former's mother, Mrs. Sarah Chamberlin.

Miss Norene Hogle, who has been seriously ill for some time past, is now reported on the road to recovery and convalescing.

Mrs. Will Irish spent Tuesday in Pontiac at the home of J. J. Hecker.

Ellington Grace and wife of Wayne, and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Grace, were guests at the home of the latter Friday of last week.

See new display of cooking utensils in Cook & Co.'s window.

Letters addressed to Bessie A. Reid, Mrs. Fred Whittier, G. Heftzog, C. E. Rose, Fred Schrage and Mr. Peters remain uncalled for at the Farmington postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steele returned last week after spending the past three months in the city. Frank will go back and forth to the rest of the school year. He has been transferred to the principalship of the Scripps school.

Good line of Oil Stoves at Cook & Co's.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Farmington Cemetery association is scheduled for Thursday evening at 7:30. Owing to the fact that the Enterprise prints one day ahead of schedule Thursday, we are unable to give the newly elected officers, but will try and have the list for publication for next week. The meeting is at the home of M. B. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Meyers were Sunday visitors in Northville.

Dr. Holcomb was looking after professional matters at Redford Sunday.

Mrs. Louis Gildemeister was a passenger for Detroit Wednesday morning.

The condition of Fred Vogt, who has been ill for some time past, remains unchanged.

Miss Emma Gildemeister was a visitor in Detroit Monday, on a short shopping expedition.

Buy your Vacuum Cleaner at Cook & Co.

Ernest Miller, with the Lapham Bank of Northville, was a local visitor last Sunday and looking after business matters.

The past week has been house-cleaning week for the D. U. R. and as a result the Farmington line is seeing some newer and cleaner cars.

Wm. Wolfong has resigned his position at the Chamberlin barber shop and expects to leave as soon as another man can be secured to take his place.

Court Northville, No. 65, F. of A., will hold their next regular meeting on Friday evening, April 17, at which time there will be 14 candidates to work on.

A new extension sufficiently large to accommodate a toilet room is being constructed at the east side of the Owen House, and will be modernized. The work is being rushed as rapidly as possible.

You will find a good selection of Aprons at Cook & Co's.

Grant Smith, a member of the business firm of Fred L. Cook & Co., was a Farmington visitor last Saturday, looking after business matters, and during the course of his visit made this office a short call. Mr. Smith is a firm believer in Farmington and incidentally one of our biggest boosters. He makes his home in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Noble, newlyweds, returned Sunday evening from a short but very delightful honeymoon trip, through and into all the principal cities of Ohio. During the next few weeks, and until July 1st, when the young couple will establish and build their own home, they will visit with the parents and relatives of both. The wedding, which occurred last week, was one of the larger social events of the season.

Buy Lime and Sulphur Solution of Cook & Co.

Con Collins was a passenger for Detroit Tuesday morning.

Floyd Nichols was looking after business matters in Northville Wednesday.

Harry Hooper went to the county seat Thursday morning on a short business trip.

Harry Adams has accepted a position with the S. D. Harger company and is driving the big red truck.

A social evening and general good time was held at the German Evangelical church on last Monday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Porter of Detroit and well known here, being a former resident, was visiting local friends the first of the week.

Edgar Pierce was looking after business matters in Detroit Tuesday and also attended the opening ball game at Navin park.

Cook & Co. are showing a large assortment of house dresses at $1.00.

Mrs. Stephen Treadway and children of Pontiac visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Smith, and also her sister, Mrs. George Lock, last week.

The many friends of Miss Mima Conley will be sorry to learn that she had to undergo a very serious operation at the Oakland county hospital on Monday.

The regular meeting of the township board was held at the town hall Wednesday afternoon, and transacted the usual routine business and allowance of bills.

Ben Meyers has just received a card from Clarence Hutchins, who plays ball with Syracuse, N. Y., this season, in which he announces his arrival and is well pleased with the outlook and the country.

See Cook & Co. for dainty styles in Summer dress goods.

Mrs. Thirza Black of Toronto, Can., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Richard Wolfe, and brother, George Gray, and other relatives. Mrs. Black returned home Tuesday.

Appropriate Easter services were held on Easter Sunday at the M. E. church, the pastor delivering a special sermon in the morning and a special program by the Sunday school was rendered in the evening. The program showed much work on the part of those who had it in charge and was enjoyed by a large congregation.

The North Farmington Cemetery Auxiliary will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Walters Tuesday, April 21, for dinner. This being the annual meeting a full attendance is desired. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Dinner will be served at 11:30 to accommodate those from the school who would like to attend.

A very pleasant gathering of the Sprague family was held Easter at the home of Watson Sprague in Wayne. Among the guests were Roy Sprague and wife and Lyman Sprague, wife and daughter of Detroit; Wm. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Skarritt and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sprague of this place.

A few friends of Mrs. John McGee planned and executed a very pleasant surprise upon the latter on last Tuesday, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. A delightful time was enjoyed by all in attendance, and an excellent luncheon served. The family will shortly leave for Detroit, where they expect to make their home, much to the regret of many local friends.

Engineer Dillon has just made the council at Milford a proposition whereby they can reduce the cost of their water works from the neighborhood of $3,500 to $800, by changing from steam to electric power and at the same time operate a street lighting system. Mr. Dillon is too well known in Farmington to need any introduction to our readers and is at present engaged in putting the local plant in a shade.

Fred M. Warner Real Estate

Offers
Eight Room House
New--$500 DOWN

Balance on easy terms if desired, buys the fine new house on Maple Grove avenue, just a few steps off Grand River avenue, East Farmington Village, good location, fine view, no trouble from main street dust, or dirt. Furnace, Electric Lights, completely furnished, bath room, laundry tubs, all newly papered, with window curtains, city water, sewers, etc. In fact a very complete eight room house, with sleeping porch, everything conveniently arranged, stairs to 3rd floor, with 24x28 ft. store room. Make an appointment next week to look it over whether you intend buying a home or not. We will be pleased to show it.

$1350 buys choice of two six room houses.

$1750 takes good 8 room house with full basement.

Choice lots on Grand River Avenue--$500.

Two 50x140 ft. lots on Orchard Street, $350 each, having city water and good drainage. Acre lots also. All of above sold on easy terms if desired. Call at office if interested.

FRED M. WARNER REALTY COMPANY

FRANK F. ZESSAU FUNERAL DIRECTOR

Copper and Steel Caskets
All Kinds of Hard Finish Rough Boxes
Steel Grave Vaults in Stock

MONUMENTS

at very low prices, all workmanship guaranteed. For sale by

F. F. ZESSAU
FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN

HOW ABOUT THAT

SUNDAY DINNER

HAVE YOU SELECTED YOUR MEAT YET?

Let me help you with my full line of fancy Meats.

Make my Shop Your Headquarters

H. L. MAAS
Phone 85 Farmington, Mich.

LADIES ATTENTION!

are now prepared to show you one of the largest and most complete lines of ever shown in the town. There are thousands of rolls at prices ranging from 5 to 30 cents per double roll.

Wall Paper

Don't forget us when you are ready to buy

Fred L. Cook & Co.