Mrs. William Knapp and Mrs. Edith L. Graham attended a stork dinner for Mrs. Ray Hickard at the home of Mrs. Edward Lindsay at Waikiki Lake. A large number of persons, mostly relatives, were in attendance. Games were played and a lunch was served. She received many useful presents.

The young son of Mr. Hammond of Fourteen Mile Road broke his arm recently when he fell off a horse.

Mr. and Mrs. James McConehille of Clyde entertained 40 guests for a family Thanksgiving dinner in their home. Mrs. R. K. McConehille received a lovely orchid corsage from her grandchildren and each guest was presented with a lovely favor during the dinner hour.

CLARENCEVILLE FHA CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Have you ever wondered why a lot of girls seem to be dashing over to the Homemaking House every Friday noon? Their reason is good because they are attending their usual F. H. A. meeting.

Just last week they elected officers for the club. Sharon Moreland is the president, Janet Smith is the vice-president, secretary is Pat Storti and Maureen Dalley is the treasurer.

You are probably thinking "What is the F. H. A.?" First of all, these initials stand for Future Homemakers of America. It is a national organization of students studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools in the United States.

Each state has an affiliated organization. As an important part of the program of homemaking in the schools of America, it offers an opportunity for further development of pupil initiative in carrying out the activities relative to homemaking.

F. H. A. brings together state groups interested in working toward better home and family living. It also creates an interest in things connected with homemaking.

The F. H. A. is now working on its constitution. The committee will meet sometime next week to try to plan future activities for '52.

The club, advised by Miss Nancy Berry, is just getting started. When it is on its way, it will be a club well worth while, interesting, and a club you will be proud to belong to.

If you are interested in joining, attend one of the meetings on a Friday noon. All girls taking Homemaking are welcome.

First Debate To Be Held At Clarkston Dec. 3

The Speech Club has been meeting regularly but with only one purpose lately: helping the debaters. The first debate of the season will be held Monday, December 3, at Clarkston High School. The five schools of the league: Northville, Holly, Milford, Clarkston and Clarenceville, will draw names to start off the debates.

Clarenceville's debaters are Ellis Grace and Meribeth Meyer, affirmative, and Annie Allan and Tom Hartford, negative.

G. A. A. Plans To Start Volleyball Tournament

"Set it up. Volley. Not. Not over the net. Two light. Spike it!" This is a typical one-way conversation you might hear if you happened to peek in the gym on a Tuesday night. Miss Meyers has organized five volleyball teams consisting of eight regulars and three substitutes. Three fourths of the members of G. A. A. participated in the first practice day, last Tuesday. A tournament is to be set up between the two freshmen, two sophomore and junior teams.

Ah, Thanksgiving is over and people all over are returning to their everyday life. Already most of us have forgotten the day except for the turkey, pies and food stuffed down. We forget that Thanksgiving is the day of thanks, but more than that, we forget to give thanks.

Not just one day of the year, but constantly. Thanksgiving is a wonderful day and there is a wonderful thought behind it. But that thought shouldn't be just left for a Thursday in November nor to a Sunday once a week. It should be with us constantly.

We have so much to be thankful for: A beautiful free country, freedom that no other country has. We have the rights of living as we want to, where we want to, how we want, of the pursuit of happiness, of liberty and liberty covers so much.

Yes, we have all these rights and more too. So let's not confine our thankfulness just to a few days a year. Let's show it every day by doing all we can to help those boys and girls who are fighting for these rights, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. They need our help and our support in every possible way. Let's make sure they get it. Let's be thankful that we have the right to help someone else who is fighting for us.

Sophomores To Sponsor Dance November 30

What's this? A sophomore dance? When? Why? Don't look now, students, but there is a dark cloud of mystery overshadowing our halls. It seems that there are rumors of a dance to be given by those spunky sophomores. But something new has been added. A dance with no name or theme? Why? These sophomores think that the rest of you students will be so curious that every single one of you will come to their dance to solve the mystery and see for yourselves their new decorations.

This "mystery" dance comes off this Friday, November 30. So all you Martin Kanes and Ellery Queens come to this sophomore shindig starting at 8 p.m. and ending at 11 p.m.

Seniors To Present Class Play Dec. 6

The senior class of Clarenceville High School will present their play on Thursday, December 6, in the high school gymnasium.

The play is a three-act comedy-mystery directed by Mrs. Mary Levens. The cast includes Al Cook, Don Westlake, Russ Robitaille, Evelyn Gonyea, Doug Gault, Gloria Meyer, Sally Marshall, Lee Chandler, Maureen Waack, Janet LaFollette, Gary Rosenboom, Roy Grace, Arlene Richmond and Ray Wellman. The class will also feature the girls' sextette and Marilyn Burkin with her partner in a tap dance as a special attraction between acts.

Sinclair Speaks To Assembly

Mr. Arthur A. Sinclair was the main speaker at a Thanksgiving assembly held in the gym Tuesday afternoon, November 20. Mr. Sinclair is a graduate of the Chicago Institute of Art and has had many years of speaking experience. He has given many lectures and chalk drawings on a variety of subjects. Among his subjects are Our American Way, Father of This Country, Rail Splitters in the Whitehouse, Paul Bunyan's Finest Hour. At the assembly he spoke on The Pilgrim Had What It Takes.

He is also known to many of the boys who have been at the Boys' Camp in Howell, where he devotes his summers. In his talk on the Pilgrims, he referred to the Bradford Journal many times and also talked about the Mayflower Compact, the first written in America, the food they had on their first Thanksgiving and the many contributions they have made to the American way of life.

The second part of the assembly was the awarding of loving cups to the winners of the essay, poem and slogan contests. Those who received cups were James Trent and Virginia Fox, 7 and 8 grade winners in the essay contest, and Don Westlake, Alan Allan and Betty Gault, 9 and 10 grade winners in the slogan contest. The 10, 11 and 12 grade winners were James Swarthout and Richard Godette in the 7, 8 and 9th grades and Russ Robitaille and Barbara Westlake in the 10, 11 and 12 grades. In the slogan contest, Elin Grace and James Meribeth won the 10, 11 and 12th grade contest.

Senior Hi-Lites

If you have attended any of our football games, you have seen our Senior Hi-Lite for this week. It is rough and rugged. I'm speaking of none other than Clarenceville's great halfback, Elmer Gordon Rouse. Elmer, as many of his friends call him, is the ripe old age of 17. He has blonde hair, brown eyes and stands 5' 8 1/2" tall.

Elmer goes out for football, basketball and baseball. His pet name is when folks skip football practice. He likes popular music and his favorite song is "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise".

Elmer graduates from old C. H. S. he wants to go to college. If you ask him what he wants to major in, he says football. I think he'll make it. The football team, that is. Don't you agree?

She's cute, she's a blonde, she's engaged, she uses El Burpo soap. Yep, our senior hi-light is blue-eyed, 5' 5" Jean Flannagan. Jean has quite a few accomplishments to her name. She was vice president of her class in her freshman year and secretary in her sophomore year. Also she and Doug Gault made up the negative team in debate for two years straight. Jean is a sports enthusiast. She likes basketball and tennis and swim. Her favorites in styles are neat, Peter Pan collars and navy blue, straight, slit skirts.

Jean made her grand entrance in this world on June 18, 1933, in far-off Oconto, Wisconsin. To prove she's a grown-up young lady, she's been engaged to John Rudgeberg since October 14 and plans to be married in December of 1952. Tony Martin is her dream singer and Ralph Flannagan is her number one orchestra leader. The top song on her hit parade just suits her time for it is "I'm in Love Again". Jean is looking forward to her graduation in June and those wedding bells.
