LEGAL NOTICE WASHINGTON MERRY - GO - ROUND

It has been reported that Deputy Collector Parker accompanied representatives of the firm on their visits thus bringing indirect pressure to increase the company's business. Caldwell denied

this. "Ira was down here on a visit and just happened to accompany me," he explained. Washington internal revonue excutives say they feel sorry for Messrs. Henslee and Welch because of their physical intimuties. However, it's admitted that the government budget already one of the biggest in history, should not be overloaded by paying salaries to those who cannot give full time to their bobs.

BRITISH ADMIRALS
A secret State Department report blames the British Admiralty for the crisis in Iran. The British admirals controlled the Abddan refinery, but were too blind to grant the Iranians a few small concessions. For example, the admirals charged the Iranians the full price for gasoline used in Iran, plus the cost of freight from the Caribbean.

for gasoline used in Iran, plus the cost of freight from the Caribbean. In other words, the Iranians had to pay a phony freight rate, even though the gasoline came from their own wells and was never shipped. The admirals also refused to allow ranians to examine the books or sit on the board of the Anglo-Iranian Dil Company.

What investigators are interested in is whether ira Parker is or was an owner of any part of the state in the underwriting deal whereby Marray and Ira's brother Joe were out in on the profits until the $125, provision whereby the loan was made his brother a virtual partner.

In August, Mrs. Roxie Parker, wife
