Girl Scouts To Visit Glenbrook Hospital

Combined Girl Scout Troop 177 and its leaders, Mrs. William Burr, Mrs. William Mitchell, Mrs. Russell Cole and Mrs. Harold Westfall, are making a trip to the Glenbrook Hospital Tuesday, December 18, to present the old people with Christmas presents and a program. The girls have made 46 utility boxes from cigar boxes. They covered the boxes with shellacked wallpaper and filled them with various articles. This project is the good deed of the troop for Christmas.

W.C.T.U. To Meet Dec. 18

The Farmington Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet Tuesday, December 18, at 1 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Vivian Gilley at 2514 Keeler for a dessert and luncheon. All members and friends are invited to be present.

A. A. U. W. HEARS DEBATE SQUAD, PLANS OPEN HOUSE

Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women held its November meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Clarence Stoll.

The Farmington High School debate team, introduced by Mrs. Lloyd Smith, Status of Women chairman, debated the National Debate question "Conscription of all American citizens for essential service in time of war." Lou Dowling and June Turner presented the affirmative side and Charles Trill and Leo Barthele, the negative. Mr. Lloyd Smith, sponsor of the group, accompanied them.

Miss Mary DeLand, International Relations chairman, briefly reviewed UNESCO and Mrs. Alice Fernandez described I. F. U. W. (International Federation of University Women) of which A. A. U. W. is a fellow member.

Miss M. M. Leach, librarian, outlined the National Library Service Bill and the group voted to ask its support from our senators.

The Year Book was presented to the members by Miss Wilma Grandgenberg and Miss Virginia Carley, who prepared it.

United Nations Cook Books are still available from Mrs. George Nahatell.

Mrs. Alfred Benson announced Mrs. Fred Buesse as her co-chairman for the A. A. U. W. open house for members and their guests to be held December 30 at the home of Mrs. Wendell Brown.

SPRINGBROOK SCENES

Mrs. Howard Legg
PHONE FARMINGTON 3011-W

It was very nice to have so many of our column readers call last week to see how I was getting along after the battle I had with my throat. It is really gratifying to know I have made so many nice new friends through The Enterprise and I wish I could thank each one of you personally for your interest and cooperation in making our column the success it is.

Little Paul Keith Caudron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Caudron of Springbrook Drive, was christened last Sunday at the St. James Episcopal Church in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Legg recently spent a day, visiting old friends in Detroit.

Mr. Edward Crawford died December 3 after having been hospitalized four months. He was born September 25, 1868 and lived most of his life in this vicinity. He is survived by one daughter in Detroit and three grandchildren in Farmington. Mr. Eugene Merrihew, Mrs. Barbara Lamb and Mrs. Patricia Surjes; and one grandchild in Washington, D. C., Mrs. Richard Guise.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Merrihew were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Newman in Detroit Sunday.

WEST FARMINGTON DISCUSSION GROUP. TO HOLD PARTY

The West Farmington Farm Bureau Discussion Group will hold its annual Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Batten on Twelve Mile Road Saturday, December 15.

The group will gather at 6:30 p.m. for a potluck dinner which will consist of scalloped potatoes, green peas, molded vegetable salad, relishes, rolls and butter, fruit jelly, apple pie and cheese, coffee and tea, highlighted by baked ham.

A short program will follow the dinner. No gifts will be exchanged. Candy will be presented to the children.

The group wishes to extend an invitation to any local member of the Farm Bureau to attend. However, because of the seating capacity it is necessary to contact the hostess or the secretary by phoning Mrs. Floyd Howard at Farmington 0151-J1 at least a day in advance.

Those attending are asked to bring a passing dish of one of the items on the menu in addition to their own table service.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Farmington Women's Club was held Wednesday, December 5, at the home of Mrs. Edwin Lindland, 2417 Nine Mile Road. Mrs. Ralph Noble, club president, called the meeting to order by welcoming the guests, Mrs. Sybil Hastings, Mrs. Malcolm Ross, Mrs. William Lancaster and Mrs. Richard Lancaster.

The club president accepted nine Jane Alden dresses for the Good-Works. After completing the business of the day, Mrs. Noble turned the meeting over to program chairman Mrs. Alex Brown. Mrs. Brown introduced Mrs. William Lancaster, who presented her speech class and a Christmas program. Readings were given by Christie Tabb, Frank Mead, Nancy Hodgens, Alice Lancaster, Mrs. William Lancaster and Shirley Grundy. Christmas carols were sung by Alice Lancaster and Judy Hoofnagle. Mrs. Malcolm Ross, contralto from Detroit, was guest soloist.

Tea and cookies were served by the hostess and Mrs. Isaac Bond poured.

America's immense reserves of coal and lignite provide the main reliance in the long-term view for our supply of solid, liquid and gaseous fuels.

Eastern Star To Sponsor New Year's Ball Dec. 31

Farmington Chapter No. 233, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a semi-formal New Year's ball on Monday evening, December 31, at the Clarenceville High School auditorium. Cecil Parescaus and his orchestra will furnish the music for modern and old time dancing. Herbert Schram will be the caller. Mrs. Ruth Russell is general chairman. Tickets may be secured from any of the officers.

A special meeting for the ceremony of initiation will be held on Tuesday evening, December 11, at 8 p.m. Refreshments and social hour will follow the meeting.

SURPRISE BREAKFAST PARTY

Mrs. Hoyt Shanour was one of a group of ten women who were "kidnapped" Wednesday morning for a "come as you are" breakfast party. Having no idea where she was headed, she finally arrived at the home of Mrs. L. A. Spalding on Hillcrest in Livonia. There she met friends from Redford Township in amusing disarray. An enjoyable breakfast was served by the hostess and the "kidnapped" finally returned to their homes.

It's Twin Boys!

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tucker of 23277 Lilac announce the birth of twin boys, Mark and Dean, recently at the Florence Crittenton Hospital in Detroit. One son weighed five pounds six ounces and the other five pounds seven ounces.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH TO HEAR GUEST SPEAKERS

The Rev. Russell Lincoln, assistant minister of the Church of Our Father in Detroit, will again preach this Sunday at the Farmington Universalist Church.

Young Mr. Lincoln's sermons are particularly significant in view of the fact that until last July he was a Fundamentalist. In turning to liberal views he embraced the Unitarian faith.

During the enforced absence of Dr. Frank D. Adams, the Farmington pastor, who is convalescing from a broken hip, the local pulpit is being filled on four successive Sundays by speakers of four faiths. Dr. Marion Edman of Wayne University, who spoke December 2, is an Episcopalian. Dr. Mark Shattuck, assistant superintendent of Detroit public schools, last Sunday's speaker, is a Methodist, although his great-grandfather was one of the founders of the Farmington Universalist Church nearly a century ago and he has numerous friends and relatives among the present membership. This Sunday will be Unitarian in nature. Then on December 23, Mrs. Eusabie Costello, one of Dr. Adams' daughters and of course a Universalist, will give the Christmas message.

The church was first called the Union Society, with a view to offering every creed its say, and it is still living up to its name.

Blue Star Mothers
L. McINTYRE

The Blue Star Mothers will not hold a luncheon or card party in December.

The Mothers will visit veterans in the William H. Maybury Sanatorium Wednesday, December 19, for their Christmas baskets and financial greetings.

The regular December business meeting will be held in the Town Hall Thursday, December 20.

A potluck luncheon and Christmas party for Blue Star Mothers will be held at 11:30 a.m. followed by the regular meeting and election of 1952 officers. Several new members will enjoy the luncheon and party for a get-acquainted hour.

Turkey will be a better flavor and certainly it will have a better texture if it is roasted at a temperature not more than 275 degrees. Experienced homemakers know that is a very moderate heat. But that's the secret of the juicy, delicious turkey.
