

ROLLING DOWN THE RIVER

By Bob Kettler

Well Christmas is over and we hope that it contained everything you wanted. We hope too, that a great many of you found a Studebaker in your stocking on Christmas Day. The lad in our parts department says he found a Studebaker in a well filled stocking unless it's a well filled stocking in a Studebaker.

Oh well, maybe he's prejudiced, but it just so happens that in case you didn't get that Studebaker for Christmas we have a few '51 models in stock. Not very many, but because of a most important announcement we'll be making next week, we're in a most receptive mind when it comes to talking trade-in. You'll get the greatest car value you ever received if you come right over. But hurry, there aren't very many left.

We're told that a very young man of our acquaintance was a bit disturbed when an uncle he had heard much of, but never seen, dropped in for a Christmas visit. "Mommy," he wailed, "I thought Rudolph was a reindeer."

Now, time and again last fall, we asked a lot of you to kindly stop in this establishment of ours and get a bit of winter-lubrication inserted in your personal transportation unit. So what happens, it gets cold, it snows, it gets warm, it gets cold and some of you, who've been skipping the advertising portions of this column call in and are YOU mad! Well doggone it get the car in! Let our expert mechanics give it a tune-up! Let our lubrication man give it the grease and oil it requires for cold weather! Then your car will start whenever you want it and our men can relax in the warm comfort of the shop... guy out there says that if you happen to live in Florida, the last line doesn't count. He'll be glad to make the service call.

That's that, but please drive carefully this coming New Year's Eve. You look ever so much nicer as a customer than as a statistic.

Yours,
BOB KETTLER

Bowlers Vie For Honors In Christmas Tourney

The annual Christmas bowling tournament is again being sponsored by Farmington Recreation. Bowlers will be competing for the singles, doubles and mixed doubles awards. Eight trophies will be given to local winners. If you are a winner your name and scores will be submitted to the A. J. B. C. which will present national trophies.

The handicaps and averages of December 25 will be used. You must be a member of either the boys' or girls' league in Farmington to be eligible. Students may bowl in doubles as often as desired, but a different partner must be used each time. J. D.

Large Number Of Seniors Plan To Attend College

Butcher, baker, candlestick maker — what do you plan to be? This was the question asked of 74 Farmington High seniors during the past few weeks. Basically, this survey showed that most of the June graduates have their futures planned. A relatively small number, only 14 per cent, replied, "I haven't any idea," when asked about their expectations.

A higher education interests 35 per cent of the seniors. They plan to attend college. Of those planning to go to college, 47 per cent have applied for scholarships.

Michigan State College has drawn the most Farmington students — seven. S. DeLong, S. Dickie, D. Gillespie, N. Holcomb, A. Louys, N. Raupp and R. Wallace plan to complete their education on the East Lansing campus.

The University of Michigan is second, drawing four Farmingtonites — D. Stephen, B. Weber, P. Chalkin and E. McGee. Students planning to attend other colleges are B. Brown, Albion College; D. Byrne, University of Detroit; N. Greenham, Asbury College; J. Hamilton, Central Michigan College; R. Hammond, Wayne University; and J. Mayer, Alma College.

Those who have not made their final decision on colleges are C. Garver, E. McKerracher, D. Prestley, F. Raupp, D. Sonsmith, C. Tulp and D. Whitehead.

Four per cent of the senior girls showed a preference toward the nursing field and plan to enter that occupation. They are N. Denington, B. Brooks and S. Lange.

Girls who have decided on anything showed a definite preference for business work. Office work accounted for 4 per cent of them while 2.7 per cent plan to enter business college.

The Armed Forces interest a relatively small number of the seniors, only 4 per cent plan to enter. B. Spess and T. Walligora plan to enter the Navy while J. Brakke intends to join the Waves.

The other 36.3 per cent named various other fields of endeavor as their choices. E. M.

Girls Athletic Association Holds Alumni Game

The annual G. A. A. Alumni game was held Saturday, December 22 in the Farmington High gym. All senior, junior and sophomore members were invited.

Cookies and milk were served in the cafeteria after the game. J. D.

Truce Talks In Korea — Two Views

TRUCE TALK ISSUE

In the event that a truce in Korea is not reached by December 31, what will the United States do, without a doubt, invade Manchuria and China. If the Reds do not want peace, they must want war. If war is what they desire, the United States and its Allies could force the Communists into submission.

By invading Manchuria the U. S. would stop the steady flow of Red troops and supplies. American forces in China would serve as a checkmate to the Communists in Korea. Then the U. N. forces in Korea could proceed northward, pushing the Reds to inevitable surrender.

Thus, Korea would be free once more and the United States part of this "police action" would be finished.

The United Nations could provide occupation forces to protect the peninsula while it is recovering from the war.

In the event that Communist troops re-invade Korea the United States would have no choice. We would have to play our ace and use atomic weapons. "This move could do one of two things: 1) frighten the enemy into submission or 2) do little or no damage. The former is more probable.

The United States has the power and the right to protect itself and its Allies. If the Communists continue to plague the world, the United States should put an immediate end to that disease. J. F.

STAY IN KOREA!

If Korean truce talks are terminated December 31, what will the United States do?

We propose that the United States take definite steps toward all-out war against the Communists. Why just sit around and watch Russia mobilize? The Russian government has taken advantage of our generosity, and has made trouble by their outbursts in Korea, China, Indo-China and so on. Yet the United States only uses words to compromise with another "truther."

Sure, the United States can out-produce Russia. So why wait to give them a head-start in the war that is inevitable? Russia and the United States cannot exist side by side in this world. Right now, they cannot get along when they are thousands of miles apart.

The Korean war has been in vain if the Allies return to the pre-war conditions. This war has cost the United States thousands of war dead and millions of dollars. These immortal soldiers would be giving their lives for exactly nothing if we pulled out.

If the United States pulls her troops out of Korea now, she will be turning her back on the hopeful Asiatics under Red Control, and she will be showing her defeat to the rest of the world.

Now that we are in Korea, go all the way to Moscow. Then maybe there will be peace in the world for a few more decades. N. K.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS HONORED AT DINNER BY KIWANIS CLUB

The members of the 1951 Farmington football team were honored at the annual Kiwanis Club football banquet Wednesday, December 19. The banquet was held in the basement of the Salem Evangelical Church.

The meeting was opened by Nate Mihay, the past president of the club. Mr. Mihay introduced Mr. Harrison, Mr. Smith, Mr. Bell and past officials of the Kiwanis Club. After Mr. Smith led the group singing, dinner was served.

Mr. Mihay asked Mr. Fliche, Mr. Burich and Mr. Nuse to say a few words. Mr. Nuse introduced the members of the football team and gave-out all-league awards.

Mr. Mihay then introduced Mr. George Makris, who is the assistant football coach and head boxing coach at Michigan State College. After saying a few words, Mr. Makris showed the pictures of the Michigan State - Notre Dame football game. J. M.
