

Plymouth AAUW Plans 18th Book Sale May 11-13

A bookworm's dream come true comes to Observersland when the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women presents its 18th annual used book sale May 11 through 13 at Wonderland Center in Livonia.

More than 12,500 quality used books will be on display in the center's west pavilion area all three days from 9:30 a.m. until 9 p.m.

Mrs. David Van Hine, chairman, said the sale will offer a good selection of books, priced at only a fraction of their original cost, to suit nearly every age and interest.

An assortment of first editions, paperbacks, quality limited editions, and collectible sheet music and records also will be available.

In especially ample supply this year, according to Mrs. Van Hine, are cookbooks, self-improvement, sports, good hard - bound fiction, and children's books.

"MICHIGAN BOOKS," a popular category introduced for the first time at last year's sale, again will offer books of particular historical interest to Detroit and suburban area residents.

A "True Adventure" category, featuring biographical books of one's experiences, will be available for the first time this year.

Rare books, signed and limited editions, and collector's items dating from the mid - 1800s will be displayed on special tables and sold to the person submitting the highest written bids.

PROCEEDS from the sale will be donated by the Plymouth branch to the National AAUW-fellowship fund, which awards annual stipends and grants to outstanding American and foreign women for doctoral and post - doctoral research.

The group also sponsors two full - tuition scholarships for local women at Schoolcraft Community College and one scholarship through the University of Michigan's Center for Continuing Education for a mature woman working toward an undergraduate degree.

SORTING AND MARKING a few of the book bargains to be on sale May 11 to 13 in Wonderland Center are Plymouth AAUW members Holly Hanert (left), Esther Hulsing and Jane Raafaub.

Northwest Association To Meet

The Northwest Communities Association for Retarded Children will elect new officers and hold a series of discussion groups at a meeting at 8 p.m., Tuesday, May 9, in Cooper School, Middle Belt and Ann Arbor Trail.

Some of the topics to be discussed are special problems of the younger retarded child, the Down's Syndrome child, children with seizures, the older retarded - work and recreation, legislation for retardation, and medical and dental care for retarded children.

All parents of retarded children are encouraged to attend this meeting, particularly parents of younger children.

Last month the association held a successful rummage sale. Future plans include a pot luck dinner meeting in July, a family picnic in July and a dinner - dance in October.

Interested persons may write to the association at P.O. Box 2505, Livonia, 48150. It serves the communities of Redford Township, Plymouth, Garden City, Livonia and Northville.

"MY MOMMA THE PUSHER" is the title of this year's original play to be presented by the Redford Suburban League Theater Guild. The production, which raises funds for retarded children, will be presented in the Redford Union High School auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Friday, May 5, and Saturday, May 6, and at 7 p.m. Sunday, May 7. Rehearsing are Doris Carlson (kneeling in front), Geri Petrucci (standing left) and Nell Barrett. (Observer photo by Maurie Walker)

PACT Sale Aids Retarded

The Southwest Regional Center for Handicapped and Retarded Children will benefit from a rummage and bake sale to be held in the Norris School in Wayne from 4 to 9 p.m. Friday, May 5, and 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday, May 6. Sponsors will be the Parents Action for Child Training (PACT). Proceeds will be used to buy equipment for schools in the Southwest center where there are classes for handicapped and retarded children.

The Norris school is located at 31627 Palmer, near Merriman.
