

Plymouth Couple Helps Send Kidney Machine To Jungle

Courch Editor

"It's not our doing, but the work of the Lord," insists L.W. (Bud) Ottenhoff of Plymouth. "We just happened to stand in the right place at he right time."

But because Ottenhoff and his wife, Dorothy, have made the most of service optomittles, a mission hospital in Quito, Ecuador, has a new kidney machine that soon will be operating to aid the Indians and other nationals of that Andes region.

Mr. and Mrs. Ottenhoff are active members of the World Radio Missionary Fellowship,
