New Teacher Has Traveling Classroom

When it came to a first teaching job after college, Carolyn and Prepared at Kalamazoo College to teach at he high school level. Instead, she taught grades four, skinne and 10. Her major subjects were listory and sychology. She wound up teaching the whole gamut of elementary and secondary subjects. And instead of working in one school, she conducted at raveling classroom all over Europe.

CAROLIN, DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Welti of Earmington, realized along with thousands of other 1971 education graduates that the job outlook wasn't exactly rosy in the teaching field.

So she went to Traverse City to meet Mr. and Mrs. the said. They wanted their two daughters and wanted their two daughters and was not to for years. We said. They wanted their family is grown, but they felt the kids shoul not get behind in school."
