

Michigan State Graduates Wed

Raleigh House in Southfield was the setting for the recent wedding of Lynn Heidi Sands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sands of Brentwood Avenue, Livonia, and Paul Herron.

Rabbi Sherwin Wine officiated. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harlow Herron of Alpena and the late Mr. Herron.

The bride wore a gown of imported English Nottingham lace with a high-rise bell skirt, sheer yoke with wedding-ring collar and full sleeves. Sheer lace fashioned the detachable train.

Her veil was elbow-length and she carried orchids and stephanotis.

Five attendants wore violet-voile gowns and carried colonial bouquets. Hilary Markow of Oak Park was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Joni Beth Sands, sister of the bride, Diane Alpert of Livonia, Donna Lally of Detroit and Heather Kraynak of Lansing.

John Stoner of Alpena was best man. Seating the guests were Fred Alpert of Livonia, James Anderson and James Worthley of Alpena and Donald Buckley of Birmingham.

Howard Weiner of Farmington was ring-bearer.

After a Toronto honeymoon, the newlyweds are living in Sterling Heights. Both are Michigan State University graduates. The new Mrs. Herron is employed by Advance Mortgage Co. of Southfield and her husband by the Utica school system.

Grace Lutheran Setting For Vows

Laura Jane Plichta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Plichta of Middle Belt Road, Farmington, became the bride of Russell F. Raiff in an early evening ceremony May 6 in Grace Lutheran Church, Redford Township.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Raiff of Watervliet, Mich.

The Rev. Victor F. Halboth officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

CHANTILLY LACE fashioned the bodice and trimmed the chiffon skirt of the bride's gown. A lace and seed pearl headpiece held her short bouffant veil.

Mrs. Patricia Webb came from Rising Sun, Md., to be matron of honor for her cousin. She wore a gingham-checked acetate dress and carried a basket of spring flowers.

Similarly dressed were the bridesmaids, Marlis Ritter of Farmington, Josephine Blazik of Warren and Judy Simcik of Dearborn.

JACK ROSS JR. of Watervliet was best man. The ushers were John Blitcha and Robert Raiff, brothers of the bride, and John Skibbee and Richard Janke of Watervliet.

For the wedding and reception for 185 guests in Behnan Hall, Southfield, Mrs. Plichta wore a lime green polyester gown and Mrs. Raiff chose a gown with orange bodice and floral skirt.

The couple honeymooned at Niagara Falls and will make their home in Coloma, Mich.

The new Mrs. Raiff graduated this spring from Western Michigan University. Her husband is a student at WMU and employed by Benton Harbor Engineering.
