Picnic In The Bag

ELIMINATE SPILLS, save space, keep foods fresh and flavorful next time you're toting a meal to the beach or backyard. Simply put the picnic fare into easy-to-seal plastic bags. Thanks to the zipper-like leak-proof seal, chicken stays moist, salads retain crispness, liquids won't leak. You can fill several bags with water and freeze them or fill the bags with ice cubes to be tucked around any perishables.

¼ cup vinegar
3 tablespoons salad oil
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon oregano leaves
¼ teaspoon black pepper
½ cup sugar
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 can (7 ounces) red pimiento, drained
1 can (15½ ounces) cut wax beans, drained
1 can (16 ounces) cut green beans, drained
1 can (15½ ounces) red kidney beans, rinsed and drained

1 large onion, sliced
1 can (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained

Blend vinegar, oil, seasonings, sugar and garlic in one gallon-size self-sealing plastic bag. Cut pimiento in strips. Add pimiento and all remaining ingredients to bag; close bag. Shake until ingredients are combined. Chill salad overnight (in bag) to develop flavor. Salad may be stored in plastic bag for several days. (Makes six servings)
