Judge's Place Is 'Lonely And Risky' -- Feikens

A judge who strives to be a Christian too is in a "lonely and risky" spot.

That's the opinion of U.S. District Judge John Feikens, who said in a May 21 television appearance:

"I am faced with a lonely and risky decision of providing people what they really need for their best and greatest well-being. Frequently, what they need is not what they want."

"That makes the process arduous but crucially important."

Judge Feikens made the comment while being interviewed by Dr. Harold Ellens, pastor of Farmington's University Hills Church, who with the Rev. Edward Baldwin of the Detroit Archdiocese conducts the regular Channel 7 program "Dialogue."

THE JURIST's statement recalled the position he took in

Holy Trinity To Break Ground

A 72-foot window of faceted chunk glass will distinguish the new sanctuary of Livonia's Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, 39200 Five Mile.

The church has announced that a $200,000 building program will begin June 2 when ground is broken for the sanctuary, and there also will be room for an overflow of 175 persons.

Completion of the building program is expected by late November or early December.

Weather permitting, the June 4 groundbreaking will be held outside in the area of the new sanctuary following a single worship service at 10:30 a.m.

The new facility will seat 425 in the sanctuary, and there also will be room for an overflow of 175 persons.

Completion of the building program is expected by late November or early December.

Weather permitting, the June 4 groundbreaking will be held outside in the area of the new sanctuary following a single worship service at 10:30 a.m.

Church CS Churches Ask Prayers To End War

A call for citizens to use the deepest confidence that prayer brings a "peaceful and prompt solution" to the Vietnam conflict was made at Churches of Christ, Scientist, in Farmington, Garden City and Plymouth and the Fourth and Eighth Churches of Detroit on Sunday, May 21.

The First Reader of each church read a message from the five-member Christian Science board of directors in Boston, which was issued to the 3,200 Christian Science churches throughout the world.

"No one can outline for another how to pray, nor do we in our prayers attempt to outline specific solutions for human conditions," the message stated. "But let this not prevent us from joining in
