Students Participate In Festival

Observerland musicians, dancers and an artist are in Midland this weekend for the 10th anniversary state youth arts festival.

Michael Kelley of Westland is one of 16 blue ribbon winners in the state-wide art contest. His pencil drawing is hanging in the Midland Center for the Arts during the festival which began Friday, May 26, and continues all of Saturday, May 27.

Sarah Roth of Livonia, one of 10 concerto winners, was featured Friday evening in a solo performance with the Midland Youth Symphony, and Ann Osterdale of Farmington, another winner, is the soloist in a Saturday afternoon concert with the Detroit Youth Symphony.

Pamela Chapman, Lee Friedrich, Luanne Sausle and Debbie Tomchak were chosen to take part in the All-Michigan Honors Band which is performing Saturday evening.

Devnie Warren, Donna Reddington, Debby Endicott and Karen Steadman of Livonia and Roberta Ravichio, Janice Roggenbeck and Lorry Eliason of Redford Township are state finalists in a ballet competition. They are performing Saturday afternoon at the arts center. Devnie and Roberta are students of Pamela Dunwoth and the others are students of Jean Nevill.

The festival is held annually during Michigan Week.

Chorale Readies 'Broadway'

The Suburban Chorale, sponsored by the Livonia parks and recreation department, is busy with rehearsals for its annual musical variety show. This year it will be presented in the new Plymouth High School auditorium, Joy and Canton Center Roads, on June 2 and 3.

Titled "Give My Regards to Broadway," the show will feature musical selections from top Broadway shows plus a vaudeville review.

Tickets may be purchased from members or at the door at $1.75. There is a special low rate for groups, children and senior citizens. Interested persons should contact Mrs. John Shuell, 32190 Myrna, Livonia, 48154.

The chorale is also holding auditions for two key posts, that of director and accompanist. They are needed to begin in September. Anyone interested in applying for the jobs should call Mrs. James Donaldson, 12809 Leverage, Detroit.

The group meets every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10:30 in Clarenceville High School, Middle Belt between Seven and Eight Mile, Livonia.

Besides staging an annual show, it sings regularly for many community organizations.

DICK BENSEK

Children are not much for fancy foods, but they do love something that tastes good. Here is a real children-pleaser called Hot-Dog Eggs.

Melt 4 tbsps. butter in a skillet over medium heat. Add 1 chopped onion and 4 frankfurters, sliced, and saute for five minutes. Then add 2 medium tomatoes, coarsely chopped, salt, pepper and six eggs, lightly beaten. Stir gently. When the eggs are set, the dish is ready. This children-appetizer is great on hot-dog or hamburger rolls which have been split and toasted.

We try hard to please everyone. See the wide selection of dishes on the menu at DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 478-5320. There are 33 entrees on our menu and we also have a child's menu complete with crayon to divert the youngsters while parents relax. Evenings Tues. thru Sat. from 8:30 to closing listen to the piano music of Pat Flowers.

HELPFUL HINT: Try adding cranberry sauce to your next meal of baked beans. It's an extra sparkle that's sure to please!

'The Best' Get $750

amusements

The Plymouth Symphony Society and League awarded scholarships worth $750 to 11 young musicians at its annual meeting Wednesday night.

A special scholarship of $75 went to William J. Ryan of Livonia as outstanding music student from Schoolcraft College. Ryan is a classical guitarist. He was chosen for the award by the college's music faculty.

THE SEVEN society scholarship winners were chosen through auditions. In a change of policy, this year the society allowed recipients to receive scholarships more than once.

"This way, we truly get the best," said conductor Wayne Dunlap as he made the awards to five previous winners, Janis Shier, Libby Glover, Laura Jender, Gabriele Klassen and Gail Murphy.

Four of these were for $75. Miss Shier received the Russell Fabister Award for $100. A violinist, she has been a member of the orchestra for several years.

Junior division scholarships, for $75 and $50, went to Kathy Stein and Liz Mobile.

The league awarded three scholarships. Winners were chosen for the seriousness with which they took their musical studies. Margaret Lang, Kirk Toth and David Shepard each received $50. These presentations were made by Mrs. Joseph McCann, retiring president of the league, the women's group which supports the symphony.

IN READING the financial report, Robert Uter revealed that the by-laws have been changed so that the financial year now runs from May to April 30 instead of from annual meeting to annual meeting, which often led to confusion.

"As usual we just squeaked by," commented chairman Joseph Neal. "I mean the society, not the orchestra. But then we are a non-profit organization." As of April 30, there was $86 in its checking account.

However, new memberships have been coming in well. The society has more than $1,000 worth in the first two weeks of the 1972-73 campaign.

FAMILY MEMBERSHIPS were a major source of income, $4,721, last year. Ticket sales for individual concerts amounted to $3,120. This is the first year in which the symphony has charged an admission.

Other major sources of income included the league's annual donation of $6,000 and a sale of carrot cakes, some $200.

Industry donations amounted to more than $1,500, about as usual, but business donations were down to $555.

In all, the society took in almost $17,000 last year and spent more than $16,000. More than $13,000 was for concert costs, including salaries for orchestra members and guest artists, lighting technicians and stage hand for the Plymouth High School auditorium.

During the year, the league raised $9,305 and had expenses of about $3,000. Totals include $1,700 in a round-robin bridge tournament; $2,100 in the antique mart; $932 in a bazaar; $2,740 at the Christmas ball; $466 in a fashion show; $500 from bowling; and $1,000 from the "pops" concert.

DR. R.H. Kirchgatter, Dr. John H. Pulker, Norman Ruehr and Dr. Charles Wells were unanimously elected to the symphony board for three-year terms.

Mrs. McCann was elected for two years. They join Mrs. Caroline Jacobs, Mrs. Ann Krankel, Joseph McCann, Helen Rosbott, Mrs. Valerie Saxton, Wilson Sick Jr. and Uter.

The new league president is Betty Laird. Other officers are Mary Smith, vice-president; Pat Beck, secretary; Betty Siefert, treasurer; Sharon Walker, publicity chairman; and Marge Hodge, refreshments chairman. Mrs. McCann is the advisor.

Gallerie Show Opens June 3

Gallerie 12, the Plymouth art gallery operated by 12 Observerland artists, will hold its third annual art show and sale June 3-7.

It will open with a preview outdoor exhibit and sale, from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m., Saturday, June 3, weather permitting. The event will be held at the Plymouth Federal Credit Union, 500 S. Harvey, Plymouth. There is no admission charge.
