Rosedale Youth Set To Work In Jamaica

"It really doesn't make much sense kids working for a year to raise money to go and work in a tropical climate for a week."

"But then, the Gospel doesn't make much sense either."

That's how Dr. Richard C. Dunkelberger, senior minister of Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church, views a coming expedition of about 30 members of the church's senior high youth group.

The Rosedale Gardens group—in a project similar to those in several other churches—is taking off in the direction of Jamaica in the wee small hours of Sunday, July 23.

ACCOMPANIED by Dr. Dunkelberger and several other adults, they'll ride by bus to Miami, fly by Pan American over Cuba to Montego Bay, Jamaica, and then head by bus again about 50 miles up the Jamaican coast Ochorios.

There they plan to spend a week painting buildings in the town school, an institution built and supported by four Detroit area Presbyterian churches, including Rosedale Gardens.

Everybody knows it will be hard work, but this particular youth group is used to that. Two years ago its members went to Jamaica and built a church out in the bush. And in recent years they've assisted a church at Whitlash, Mont., and assisted at a 4-H camp in Appalachia.

DR. DUNKELBERGER, working actively with youth in the church for the first time in 15 years, views it as Christianity in action —

"making a living word a way of living."

"I think it's an indication of the concern of these young people to be of service," he added. "I've found today's youth a whole new ball game. They play hard and they work hard but the thing that has impressed me is their real concern for people."

The senior high, he said, have conducted all sorts of money raisers like car washes and bake sales, and have managed to raise about $3,000 for the trip. In addition, each will pay $115.

"SOME MAY ASK why we would spend several thousand dollars taking a bunch of kids to work in an undeveloped area like Jamaica," the clergyman said. "Why not just send the money?"

"It's a fair question, and the answer is that our real concern is that the kids understand that our gospel is a gospel of mission."

"In a few years, they'll be members of the ruling body of the church. We want them to have personal knowledge of how mission money is used."

Besides depicting paint brushes, the young people will have a chance to work with an American couple who have been serving in Ochorios for several years, as well as Dr. Herbert Swaby, headmaster at the school.

They'll learn more about Jamaica from government officials," Dr. Dunkelberger said, "and, for the first time in their lives they'll be members of a minority group."

THE YOUTH GROUP, while preparing for the trip, has taken time too for some close to home missionary work. One project was painting the home of a low-income Livonia family the church has been aiding.

"Wasn't it Will Rogers who used to say we'll do anything for anybody so long as he doesn't live next door?" Dr. Dunkelberger asked.

"These kids want to help people next door as well as those hundreds of miles away."

The four Rev. Ritter who used to say we'll do anything for anybody so long as he doesn't live next door?" Dr. Dunkelberger asked.

"These kids want to help people next door as well as those hundreds of miles away."

Rally Will Focus On Moral Decline

Moral decline and breakdown of family life in America will be emphasized at the Christian Crusade Rally to be held in Dearborn Heights Saturday, July 15.

The guest speaker will be Charles Secrest, a Christian Crusade evangelist who will be representing the anti-communist ministry of Dr. Billy James Hargis of Tulsa, Okla.

The rally will be held at 7:30 p.m., in Bethel Baptist Church, 27355 Ann Arbor Trail.

SECRETARY will relate his message to his latest book, "The Smirch Assassin," the family system ever since Marxism and Leninism were first introduced.

If present trends continue, Secrest foresees a new kind of family, where day care centers and free boarding schools "liberate" women from the drudgery to which they have been "assigned" under capitalism.

He points specifically to recent legislation promoted to establish child care centers, whose ultimate goal is destroying the free will of children by taking over the parents and giving the "ethical direction and content" to a child's life. Control of hyperactive children and man's personality by drugs and electronic devices, he says, could lead to a scientific dictatorship, then socialism and communism.

Secrest received his theology training at the Cincinnati Bible Seminary. He joined the staff of Christian Crusade, after ministering in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana.

HE HAS also written "Those Red Bears in Clergy Collars," an expose of liberalism among churchmen, and is co-author of "Women's Lib, One Way Street to Bondage." He writes a weekly column for the Christian Crusade Weekly.

Christian Crusade was organized by Dr. Hargis in 1950, when he resigned a full-time pastorate to devote his energies to exposing communist infiltration and subversion in America and apostasy in religion.

"There is no charge for the rally."

Archdiocese Adds Staff Fund-Raiser

Cardinal John F. Dearden has announced a new Archdiocesan Office for Development and Church Support. Named to the post was Charles B. Starrs, who has 13 years' experience in professional fund-raising with the Detroit firm of John V. McCarthy & Associates.

The creation of the office is an outgrowth of many proposals submitted during the 1969 synod of the archdiocese and subsequently an approved recommendation of the Synod Implementation Committee.

IN ANNOUNCING the new position, Cardinal Dearden said:

"Starrs will principally handle the planning and directing of the annual Archdiocesan development fund appeal. His appointment meets the need for someone with the expertise both to handle the overall coordination of the ADF appeal and to give technical assistance to the parishes in their ADF effort."

As the new office develops and as his time permits, Starrs will also make his broad experience in fund-raising available to parishes, vicariates and institutions in the archdiocese."

AS OF JUNE 30, ADF 72 contributions from Archdiocesan parishes totaled nearly $1,300,000, down more than 10 per cent from last year. The decline reflects both a national condition for such funds and the reduced size of the archdiocese, since Washtenaw and Lenawee Counties were transferred last July to the Lansing Diocese.

THE TURNING POINT QUARTET, a group of male vocalists from Warner Southern College in Lake Wales, Fla., will sing in the Riverside Park Church of God, Newburgh and Plymouth Roads, Livonia, at the 11 a.m. service Sunday, July 16. Alan Wilson (second from left) is a member of the Riverside congregation and a Southfield resident studying for the ministry at the Florida School. The others are Rucky Meadows (left), Chuck Chewning and Randy Ruppert at the piano.

Assemblies Offer Camp For Deaf

The Michigan District Council of the Assemblies of God Church is offering a week-long camp for all deaf and hard-of-hearing children over the ages of nine. The camp is also open to young people and adults. Deaf parents may bring their hearing children with them, and small children and babies will be taken care of during classes.

The camp is in Fa-Ho-La Park, Grass Lake, (near Jones, 36970 S. Huron, New Jackson), will be open Aug. 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. Total cost for the week is also available.

$25. Children under three attend free and children three through eight pay half price. Each registration should be accompanied by a $1 deposit. Camp reservations are now being accepted by the day of camp.
