Secretaries Install Officers

The Town & Country Chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International) installed 1972-73 officers, initiated six new members and honored past presidents at a recent meeting.

Charlotte Hay of Southfield is the new president. Installed with her are Esther Vots of Livonia, vice president; Elisabeth Bray of Farmington, recording secretary; Irene Boltz of Plymouth, corresponding secretary and Inge O'Hearon of Livonia, treasurer.

Louise Watson, outgoing president, installed the new officers and also presided for the initiation. New members include Elaine Hall, secretary to Philip H. Power, Observer Newspapers publisher, Helen Dolan, Pauline Longton, Mae Van Riper, Winifred Glaser and Sandra Walker.

Past presidents honored were Eleanor Senkowski, Helen Ellmore, Eve Moulso, Jenelda Sowers and Louise Water.

The chapter plans a swim party in July and a day at the races in August. Prospective members and guests will be welcome.

Spruhan-Bennett Vows Are Spoken

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Spruhan are making their home in Chicago following their recent wedding in the Albany Park Baptist Church there.

Mrs. Spruhan is the former Judy Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett of Starkweather Street, Plymouth, and the bride's parents.

The Rev. Robert Coppits officiated for the double-ring ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDAL GOWN, made by Mildred Field of Plymouth, was white satin covered with white chiffon and featured an empire waist with white lace rosebuds.

The bride wore a shoulder-length veil held by a seed pearl headpiece and carried pink and yellow rosebuds and baby breath.

Debbie Bennett, her sister's only attendant, wore a blue gown and carried blue and white daisies. John Ackerman of Plymouth was best man.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD C. WEISS JR.

Son's Sermon Helps Parents Mark 50 Years

A sermon preached by their minister son in the church where they were married 50 years ago was a special feature of the golden wedding anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Weiss Sr. of Redford Township.

They were honored Saturday, June 17, at a reception in the American Legion Post 271, hosted by their children, the Rev. and Mrs. Edward C. Weiss Jr. of Onsted, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cowall of Livonia.

The following day they heard their son preach a tribute titled "It Takes Two," in the Preston United Methodist Church on 23rd Street in Detroit, where the senior Weisses were married at 2 p.m. June 17, 1922.

The Rev. William Pellowe had performed the ceremony in the parsonage, and the couple honeymooned at Niagara Falls and lived in Detroit until moving to Redford Township in 1953.

They still are members of the Detroit church and are active in its program. Mr. Weiss's membership goes back to 1908 and Mrs. Weiss's to 1921.

The couple's favorite hymns were part of the June 18 service, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Weiss hosted a coffee hour for the congregation.

Among 150 guests at the American Legion Post reception were Mrs. Roy Groat, who was bridesmaid at the wedding half a century ago, and Frank Cully, best man. Other guests came from New Jersey, Cincinnati, Newport, Mich., Troy, Royal Oak, Farmington, St. Clair Shores, Ann Arbor, Chelsea, and Northville.

The couple have nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Mr. Weiss worked 41 years for the Morse Chain Co. and was traffic manager when he retired in 1963. In recent years he has been active in township civic affairs and is now president of the Redford Township Music Society.
