He also has an active interest in the Astro Tune-Up Center of Farmington, Grand River near Orchard Lake Rd.

Brotherton is serving his seventh year as mayor and his 14th year on the city council. He has also served on the City Retirement Commission and is a member of the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Brotherton became active in politics as president of the Belaire Civic Association and as a member of the school board's Citizen's Advisory Council. He was later appointed to the Farmington Planning Commission.

Prior to his association with Astro Programs, Brotherton held executive positions with

"It is apparent that during the next few years many important decisions will be made (at the county level) which will determine the role of local, county and regional government for the next decade," he said. "It is imperative that we retain the integrity of local government while taking advantage of the strengths of county government wherever possible."

Brotherton is a 17-year resident of Farmington and lives with his wife Yvonne and their two children, Lynn, 15 and Bill 10, at 23622 Beacon Drive.
