Bacon, Jamee Gregory, Kelli Questrom, Sandy Head and Vincent Nasso.

'Make-Over' Team Due

A complete "making over" by a team of experts from Mademoiselle Magazine will happen to several young women from Observerland Thursday, Aug. 3.

Volunteers from the audience for a fashion and beauty show in the J.L. Hudson Co. Westland store will be chosen for a live demonstration of new beauty techniques. The show will run from 2 to 6 p.m. in the second level fashion department.

"Mademoiselle on Location" is the title of the fashion event that stars a five-member team of experts on style, hair and make-up. Also on hand will be a photographer to record the make-overs, some of which will appear in the December issue of Mademoiselle.

THE TEAM is making a three-day visit to the Detroit area and plans stops in Hudson's Downtown and Eastland stores as well as Westland.

Mademoiselle staff members visiting include fashion editors Kelli Questrom and Sandy Head, hair stylist Guillaume Gignac, make-up artist Vincent Nasso and photographer Bruce Bacon. Jamee Gregory, assistant college competitions editor, also is on the team.

Using techniques and trade secrets of models and editorial beauty professionals, the team will demonstrate latest trends in clothes, hair and make-up on volunteers.

Before an audience for the "event-in-the-round" they will cut and curl hair, apply make-up, demonstrate exercises, create wardrobes for individual figures and life styles and answer personal questions.

KELLI QUESTROM, heading the Mademoiselle team, joined the magazine in 1970 as men's wear editor and now also serves as public affairs director. A native of Denver, she graduated from Russell Sage College with an honors degree in marketing and economics, and worked as director of sales promotion and public relations with Abraham & Straus in Brooklyn.

Sandy Head also has a dual role with Mademoiselle, serving as crafts editor and assisting the shoe and lingerie editor. Quebec-born Guillaume Gignac learned to style hair in Paris and now travels to colleges and cities around the country, lecturing and making television talk show appearances.

Vincent Nasso, a leading New York make-up expert at the age of 23, is taking a leave from a world tour with singer Roberta Flack to make the "On Location" visit. He is a graduate of the New York School of Art and Design and was a photographer's assistant before turning to the field of beauty work.

Bruce Bacon, who will photograph the events at Westland, has had wide experience in the photographic field, including producing and directing films and doing television commercial work.

Secretaries Attend Convention

Seven members of the Livonia Town and Country Chapter, National Secretaries Association (International) are in Chicago this week for the 27th annual convention of the NSA.

The four-day event is being held in the Palmer House Hotel, with final sessions slated for Saturday, July 29. Charlotte Hay, president of the club, is the official delegate. The alternate delegate is Esther Vots, the vice president. Accompanying them are Inge O'Hearn, treasurer; Jenedia Sowers, a member of the international nominations committee; Mary Aird, Mae Andrews and Eve Moulis.

Commemorating the association's founding in 1942, the theme is "30 Years of Progress Through Performance." Mrs. Angeline Krout, administrative assistant to the Commanding Officer, U.S. Coast Guard Yard, Baltimore, Md., is the international president.

Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi, director of the School of International Studies, Bradley University, Peoria, Ill., and consultant to the U.S. State Department, gave the keynote address.

$300 Profit

The Livonia Jaycettes now have $300 to be used for their charitable projects. The money was raised at a ring-toss booth the organization sponsored at the recent Jaycee-sponsored carnival.

Proceeds Aid Paint Party

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha at the University of Michigan will host its annual summer luncheon and card party at noon, Thursday, Aug. 10, in the chapter house, 1550 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor.

All alumnae and friends are invited. Luncheon tickets are $2.50 and may be obtained from Mrs. Dennis Sirosky, 17405 Pershing, Livonia, 48152.

Proceeds from the luncheon are used each year for a special house maintenance project. This year it will help pay for a "paint party" at which 45 collegians and their fathers will paint the house.
