R. GUS BUBLITZ

HARRY COGAN

Great Scott
Names Two
New Veeps

Promotion of two members of its top management team to vice presidents has been announced by Nathan Fink, president and board chairman of Great Scott Supermarkets.

R. Gus Bublitz was named vice president-director store operations and Harry Cogan to vice president-merchandising director.

"These promotions are the result of professional achievement and increased responsibilities on the part of both men," said Fink.

Bublitz, formerly with Kroger for 24 years, joined Great Scott in 1971 after managing the Kroger Toledo and Wisconsin divisions. He is a native of Bay City and attended Michigan State University.

Cogan, a native Detroit who attended Wayne University, has been associated with Detroit's retail food industry for more than 26 years. As vice president - merchandising director he is responsible for all advertising and purchasing.

Great Scott Supermarkets is Detroit's third largest, and fastest growing food chain, operating 45 supermarkets and three Bonnie-Lu drugstores.
