

An aerial view of Northland and vicinity shows the offices, apartments, hotels and theater which surround the shopping center, Eight Mile Rd. cuts across the bottom of the picture and the John Lodge Expressway cuts across diagonally and intersects with the Southfield Expressway in the upper left hand corner. Just to the right of that intersection is the Honeywell Bldg., built on land sold them by Northland. A Ponchartrain Hotel will soon be built next to it. Following the Lodge south you see the Northland Apartments, the Northland Theater (to the right with a sloped roof) and the Northland Inn and office buildings (where the Lodge intersects Eight Mile Rd.) To the north of the shopping center is Providence Hospital and other medical buildings.
