

Give Bride An Elegant Shower

By ELLY

If you have a special summer bride how about putting your entertainment skills to work on an afternoon tea. Few occasions offer a hostess an opportunity to entertain so elegantly so easily.

Delicate, light and dainty are the keywords. Organza, lace or embroidered cotton tablecloths, a small bowl of flowers, silver and china will all complement the small cakes and sandwiches served with the tea.

The tea should be prepared in a china pot just before serving. Fill the teapot with boiling water to heat it. Empty the water and put in the tea leaves, about one teaspoon per cup. Pour rapidly boiling water over the leaves, put the cover on the pot and allow the tea to steep for five minutes.

Everything else can be prepared ahead of time.

SCOTTISH SCONES
2 c. sifted all-purpose flour
4 t. baking powder
1/2 t. salt
2 c. butter, softened
2 eggs, beaten
6 T. milk

Sift flour, baking powder and salt twice. Cut butter into flour mixture. Add eggs and then milk. Turn out on a floured board and knead a little. Roll to one-half inch thickness. Cut into small rounds with cookie cutter or glass. Put on buttered cookie sheet and bake at 400 degrees 12 to 15 minutes. Serve with butter and marmalade or jam.

FRESH STRAWBERRIES
Arrange unhalved washed fresh strawberries in circles on two large plates. Put a small mound of confectioners' sugar, for dipping, in the center of each plate. Refrigerate until ready to serve.

OATCAKES

Combine 1 1/2 cups oats with next four ingredients. Cut in shortening. Add enough water to make a stiff dough. Separate into two balls. Roll each to one-eighth inch thickness. Dust on top with rolled oats. Press oats down into the dough with rolling pin. Cut into small squares and put on buttered cookie sheets. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes.

TEA SANDWICHES
Have a variety of bread, rye, whole wheat, white, raisin, date nut. Remove crusts. Cut into several different shapes, round, square, triangular or diamond. They may be open or closed. Make them early in the day and keep them covered with foil in the refrigerator until serving time.
