

Rita To Play Again For Redford

The Redford Township Music Society is bringing back its foremost guest soloist for a return concert, but this time instead of a few hundred people, it's hoping that 4,600 will turn out to hear her.

The society is sponsoring a concert by the 14-year-old Rita Reichman at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 4, in the Masonic Auditorium, Detroit. Tickets are $3, $5 and $6.50. They are now available at the auditorium box office, Hudson's and Grinnell's.

MISS REICHMAN's performance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at Meadow Brook in August drew the largest crowd of the season and won acclaim from the critics, as well as a standing ovation from the audience. This marked her professional debut.

But Miss Reichman made her Detroit area debut in 1968, when she was featured in a concert with the Redford Civic Symphony, which is sponsored by the society. In Thurston High School, she played works by Mozart, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Schumann, Haydn and some of her own compositions.

Born in Melbourne, Australia, into a musical family, Miss Reichman could play everything she heard by the time she was 2½. She began formal music lessons at the age of 3½ and could read music in four weeks, although she did not know the alphabet.

At the age of four, she began studying theory and composition with one of Melbourne's leading composers, and soon after she performed for the concert pianist Manfred Clynes, who wanted to recommend her for a full scholarship at the Juilliard School of Music in New York City.

Amusements

But her mother decided that she was too young to leave the family, and it was not until 1968 that Miss Reichman came to the U.S. with her mother and her brother, David, and sister, Shirley.

THE THREE children received scholarships to Interlochen Arts Academy and Mrs. Reichman became a language teacher there.

Miss Reichman performed for the Michigan Music Teachers Convention and attracted the attention of Mrs. Floyd Holtenga, a piano teacher who was then president of the Redford Township Music Society. It was Mrs. Holtenga who invited her to perform and established the society's keen interest in her success. At that School, and is first trumpet with the Livonia Youth Symphony.

The second Redford Civic Symphony Concert will feature a young and talented flute soloist, Linda Bamford. This will be Dec. 17. The Ford Motor Chorus will also be featured.

The soloist for Feb. 25 is still to be announced and the soloist for April 15 will be Miss Reichman's brother, David, who is a talented violinist.

The first two concerts will be in Redford Union High School and the second two will be in Thurston.

All will begin at 4 p.m. Season tickets and memberships are now being sold by the officers and board members.

Do you know that ice cream has feelings? Ice cream must be handled carefully. If it is handled too much, it loses its velvety texture. Also, the richer the cream, the colder the freezing and storing temperature must be in order to keep ice cream smooth and tasty. Ice cream is usually good for a month or more in your home freezer. In refrigerator-freezers the freezer part must be set at its coldest point in order to keep the ice cream.
We feel our patrons deserve good food and friendly service. When you want to enjoy an evening out spend it with us at DANISH INN, 32305 Grand River Ave., 476-5320.
