

Garden Is Setting For Rites

Under the branches of a 250-year-old beech tree, Diane Holmon-Sims and William Bruce Nevill repeated their marriage vows Sept. 9.

The ceremony took place in the garden of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Sims of Cincinnati. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Nevill of Garden City.

A wedding breakfast on the garden terrace followed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the Rev. Louis Wolter of Armstrong Chapel in Cincinnati gave the benediction.

Participating in the ceremony were Sue Nevill, sister of the bridegroom, and Gregory Sims, brother of the bride, and music and songs were provided by Diane Hanson and Timothy Shaw, both of Kalamazoo.

The bride wore a long gown of antique ivory tulle and carried a colonial bouquet in fall shades of yellow, gold and apricot. Her hair was caught back with ribbons and flowers in the same colors.

After a trip to Spain and the Mediterranean coast, the couple will live in Kalamazoo.

The new Mrs. Nevill is a senior at Kalamazoo College. She spent one of her junior semesters studying in Sierra Leone on the west coast of Africa. Her husband is a Kalamazoo College graduate.

Jaycettes Plan Party

Emotionally disturbed children will benefit from a card party, fashion show and buffet luncheon the evening of Oct. 16.

The event will be staged at Idyl Wyld Golf Club, 35780 Five Mile, Livonia, under the sponsorship of the Livonia Jaycettes. Advance tickets are now being sold by Mrs. Morrall Claramunt, 9131 Knolson, Livonia.

Profits will be given to the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children (MAEDC). The association was formed in 1957 to provide a means by which the public might become better aware of the personal, social and community needs of emotionally disturbed children and to provide parents of troubled children with a means of helping their own children and others.

Childbirth Unit Plans Films

Two films on the Lamaze method of childbirth will be shown at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 6, in the Northville City Hall, 215 W. Main.

The films are "The Story of Eric" and "Where Does Love Begin." A question and answer period will follow.

The showings are being sponsored by the Lamaze Childbirth Education Association.

The Livonia City Women's Club will hold a membership drive tea at 1 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 19, in the Parish Hall of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, 27475 Five Mile Road, Livonia.

Blind musicians from the Plymouth State Home, will present a musical program.
