George P. Allen died at his home in Northville last Friday after a long illness and the interment was made in Clarenceville on Monday. Mr. Allen was well known throughout this section as "Allen, the stove man," having been an expert in repairing stoves, and for many years his wagon traveled the roads of this vicinity.

Special attention is called to the high school memorial exercises to be held in the town hall on Friday afternoon, May 29th, owing to the fact that the program is being held one day in advance of the usual custom, so that a larger attendance of school pupils can be secured. An appropriate program has been prepared, including an address by Congressman Smith.

The Ladies' Literary club held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edna Dohany at Clarenceville and an interesting meeting is reported by all. The next meeting is scheduled for next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. W. Wilber, when President's Day will be observed. All members are requested to bring their scissors. A good time is assured, and it is probable that the new yearly calendars will be ready for distribution.

H. W. Freed's Trained Animal Show

H. W. Freed's Trained Animal Show will exhibit in Farmington Wednesday, May 27. The entertainment consists of high class performances by trained Shetland ponies, educated dogs and performing mules. One big feature is Bruno, a large specimen of the American black bear, who has been trained to perform many novel tricks, some of which are seemingly impossible, and go to show what the art of animal training can accomplish.

Another feature is the famous riding rooster, a common barnyard fowl, that rides a pony at full speed around the ring. There are also somersault dogs, skipping-rope dogs, ponies that play teeter-totter, ponies that tell the time of day and perform the military drill. Other acts include Bert Renzo, Roman ring performer and chair and crystal pyramids; H. W. Freed in a new and original act of juggling with objects; Rube Perkins, comically called the "Human Fly," who walks upside down on ladders suspended in the dome of the tent, and also presents a wonderful act in still walking on a wire. Admission: 25c; children under 12 years, 15c. Doors open at 7 p. m., performance one hour later under canvas. Big tree street parade at 7 p. m.
