

Teeples Rebuts Campaign Charge

FARMINGTON Farmington Township Supervisor Earl Teeples, who accepted recently with accepting campaign contributions from people seeking approval of a liquor license, countered by accusing his opponents of similar practices.

He harkened back to the campaign of Trustee Earl Oppertshauer, who ran for district judge in 1968. Teeples listed eight out of 10 contributors as developers or people with interests in real estate in the township.

In the more recent township primary, Teeples opponents

Mrs. Lucile Lemon of Hull Road, Farmington, and several of her friends, enjoyed an eight-day motor trip through Canada and the New England States returning Sept. 18.

Making the trip with Mrs. Lemon were Mrs. Alberta Mannix of Livonia, Mrs. Ruby Keyes of Saginaw, and Mrs. Darlene Crumley of Royal Oak. They drove from Detroit through Canada to Quebec, then to Maine and New Hampshire and down to Rhode Island, Cape Cod and Hyannisport, Mass.

John Wineman celebrated his 85th birthday Sept. 24 with a buffet party at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, the Elmer Lells of Springvale Road, Farmington. Wineman is known for the many lovely oil paintings he has turned out over the years despite never having had a lesson.

Loren Lemon of Lake Orion, son of Mrs. Lucile Lemon of Hull Road, Farmington, celebrated his birthday Friday, Sept. 22. Mrs. Lemmon and Loren's brother, Larry, and his family drove to Lake Orion to help Loren and his family celebrate. Loren is a 1960 graduate of Farmington High School.

Maurice Brown of Grand River is back home after spending three weeks in Annapolis Hospital where he underwent surgery.

Mrs. Emma Weber of Wilmarth is in Flint Osteopathic Hospital after having been taken seriously ill at the Flint home of her son, John.
