Retarded Will Have Talent Show

The Oakland County Association for Retarded Children will host the first state-wide musical talent contest for the mentally retarded on Nov. 11. The contest will get under way at 7:30 p.m., in the Holiday Inn, 26555 Telegraph Road, Southfield. Interested persons may contact Jerry Miller, assistant administrator, 254 S. Telegraph, Pontiac. The association is asking for a donation of $2 per person.

Dinner Dance Benefit Carries On Services For OC Handicapped

Southfield Celebrities and personalities will be among the guests at the fourth annual dinner dance sponsored by the Oakland County Association for Retarded Children in the Royal House in Warren, Saturday, Oct. 28. The public is invited to attend this fund-raising event which the OCARC hopes will add 25 percent to the 75 percent contribution by the United Fund, needed to carry on their service.

Dinner dance co-chairmen are Southfielders Mr. and Mrs. Al Cambridge and Mrs. Bernard Trompeter. Their committee has planned the evening beginning with cocktails at 6. Tickets to the dinner dance are available at the OCARC office, 254 S. Telegraph, Pontiac, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Guests will be greeted by three of Michigan's top beauties: Terri Cousino, "Miss Michigan"; Bonita Jackson, "Miss Black Michigan"; and, Diana Yousey, "Miss Oakland County."

A gourmet dinner will be served at 7:30 to be followed by a brief program with the master of ceremonies, Bill Bonds of WKYZ-TV, introducing celebrities and personalities attending.

Television personalities Kelly Burke, John Kelly, and Dean Miller will appear along with special guests: County Sheriff William Lucas; General S. L. A. Marshall; humorist Charley Manos; and, Martha Jean "The Queen" of WJLB radio. Tiger fans will enjoy meeting Jim Northrup and, if "Peaches" Barkowitz is the one to see. Don Palmer's Orchestra will supply the music for dancing. It has billed performers such as Engelbert Humperdinck, Jack Jones, Nancy Wilson and Tony Bennett and recently appeared on Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show."

OCARC President Mort Collins of Southfield and Brent Glazier, executive director, hope this event will help the organization support its numerous commitments and planned activities for the following year.

Many of the OCARC activities directly involve the retarded, giving them opportunities to function as useful citizens and participate in social activities which have been unavailable.

One major function, sponsored by the organization is the "Special Olympics Meet" which enables retarded persons of all ages to participate competitively in Olympic games geared to their abilities.
