Princess Detained In Uganda; Kampen Town Hall Speaker

International politics moved into the Livonia Town Hall scene this week as Princess Elizabeth Bagaya, United Nations ambassador from Uganda, found it impossible to leave her country and canceled an Oct. 18 date with the Livonia group.

Her place in the Terrace Theater for the opener of the 1972-73 series at 10:30 a.m. will be filled by Irene Kampen, humorous writer. Mrs. Norbert Dittmar, Livonia

Town Hall president, said the princess had telephoned the Keedick Lecture Bureau in New York Wednesday, saying the government of Uganda would not give her permission to leave the country at this time. "When Robert Keedick, head of the bureau tried to question her, she said she was afraid the telephone was being tapped," Mrs. Dittmar added. Mrs. Kampen is author of several books, including "Due to Lack of Interest, Tomorrow Has Been Canceled," which describes her experi-
