

Mr. AND MRS. CHARLES COLOMBO

Sons Host Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Charles relatives and friends at Colombo of Rougemont Drive, Livonia, were guests of honor at a surprise party hosted by their four sons when they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Oct. 22.

The sons are Charles, of Detroit; Kenneth, of Redford Township; Daniel, of Indianapolis; and Warren, of Warren. The Colombos have 11 grandchildren.

The dinner and reception were held in Schivini's Supper Club, Detroit. Some 100 about 100 friends and relatives attended a reception in the Metropolitan Club in Dearborn Heights in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker of Deering Street, Garden City. Mr. and Mrs. Parker also held an open house in their home.

100 Attend Reception

They have three children, John Alfred Parker of Ottawa, Ont., Sidney William Parker of Garden City and Mrs. Joyce Lab of Howell, formerly of Livonia. They have three granddaughters, Sarah Sharon and Colleen Parker, all of Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker were born in England and moved to Canada. They were married in Toronto, Ont., Sept. 16, 1922. In 1947 they came to the U.S. and have resided in Garden City since 1959. Parker was an employee of Coleman Tool and Die.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Haynes of London, England, and several friends from Toronto.

Secretaries To Be Models

Town and Country Chapter of the National Secretaries Association will sponsor a fashion show and luncheon at 12 noon, Saturday, Oct. 28, in the Kingsley Inn, 1475 Woodward, Bloomfield Hills. Club members will act as models.

Helen Ellmore, 8841 Utah, is in charge of tickets. Donation is $2.25.

Legal Rights Conference Theme

The first conference in Michigan designed for women with an interest in evaluating their legal rights, responsibilities and possibilities will be held Saturday, Oct. 28, at Oakland University Rochester.

To register, those interested should write or call the OU conference department. The fee of $9.35 includes tuition, registration, coffee break and luncheon.

AN OVERVIEW of current legislation and practices relating to sex discrimination will be presented by Delores C. Tripp, attorney for the Michigan Department of Social Services.

What's happening in the state today will be covered by Rosalie Sullivan, in-charge supervisor for the Michigan Civil Rights Commission.

The grounds for legal recourse, how to file and where to look for assistance will be discussed by Jeremy Lynn Winter, an attorney.

Winter will also talk about no-fault divorce, alimony and property settlement.

FACTS FOR the novice investor on stocks, bonds, mutual funds and interest rates will be covered by Marilyn Hogan, an account executive, and Lillie L. Smalley, a realtor, will discuss buying, selling and renting a house.

Opal Barrett will cover insurance planning for health, life, home and auto.

The employment picture, including pay, promotion equality and affirmative action, will be presented by Judy Sale of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and Lela K. McNally will give information about estate planning, wills, trusts and commercial loans.

Janice Guerriero, conference chairwoman and director of business education for the university's continuing education division, will discuss discriminatory practices in education.
