

IN THE POCKET

By W.W. EDGAR

Well, it finally happened — a woman bowler has broken through the 700 barrier.

Bowling in the Bowlerettes League, Freda Chandler, of the Motown Records team, fashioned a 709 series and became the first to crash the barrier in the metropolitan district.

With this high series she bettered the previous high rolled by Midge Poskha, the counter girl at Westland Bowl where she posted a 681 series.

And while Freda was on her scoring spree, Elvira Toepfer, one of the top women bowlers in the area, had a most unusual experience. She rolled a 670 series and didn't figure in any of the high single games.

JOINING MRS. Chandler in posting a record high came a virtual unknown — Bob Cockerill — at Wonderland Lanes in Livonia.

Bowling in the Associated Spring League, he came through with a 778 — the highest count reported in the entire area for the season thus far.

Three other sharpshooters came through with 700 counts in the Wonderland Classic as scores soared.

Tommy Rands paced the Classic with 748 on games of 249, 263 and 236. At this figure he held a mere 12 pin edge over Paul Isken who opened with 233, followed with 258 and closed with 245 for 735.

The third brought a real thrill to Jack Bohn. After posting a 233 he came back with 256 and finished with 234 for 713 — the first 700 series he ever had bowled.

THE WESTLAND Bowl sharpshooters kept pace with rival Classics when Dan Emmett rolled a 269 game between counts of 222 and 229 for 711.

Jay Dishong finished in the runner-up position with a 693 that included a 246 opener and Jack Camp landed third for the night with a 233 in 545.

Larry Brandt missed the 700 barrier by a mere four pins with a 696 to show the way in the Garden Lanes Classic. At that, he beat out Gary Kilgore by four pins, while another Trenton captured Suburban Eight golf honors with a low 326 at the conference match at Salem Hills Golf Course.

Deardon placed second, four strokes off the pace (330), and Redford Union came in third with a 334. Belleville and Plymouth tied for the fourth slot with 352s. Edsel Ford finished sixth (352) and Allen Park was seventh at 401.

Tom Fairgrave of Trenton was league medalist with a five-over-par 77.

The Redford Union assault was paced by three 83s. Bob Lewicki, Steve Walker and Joe Evans all shot 83s. Tom Holbel came in with an 85.

Plymouth scores were: Jeff Roth (85), Paul Sillagay (87), Jeff Rodgers (89), and Ed Olszewski (91).
